

Eman S & S Sabadala – “The Two Senzos”

Professional Artist Biography

Emerging from the vibrant musical landscape of Durban, South Africa, the dynamic duo Eman S and S Sabadala—often affectionately referred to as “The Two Senzos”—bring together two distinct artistic forces whose collaboration has already produced some of the most compelling sounds in South Africa’s contemporary music scene.

While both artists continue to build strong individual brands, their chemistry as collaborators has proven undeniable, most notably through their contribution to the viral hit “Ngibuyela Emakhaya” by Caviar Musique. The song, co-created alongside Kenton Lee and Zykes Magida, introduced audiences to their unique sonic synergy, reaching over 5 million views on YouTube, 4 million streams on Spotify, and climbing to No. 3 on the Metro FM Top 20.

Eman S – Producer & DJ

Born Senzo Emanuel Njabulo Dlamini in KwaMashu, Eman S is a talented music producer and dynamic DJ whose artistry is rooted in a deeply musical upbringing. His production style blends rich Afro-house textures with modern rhythmic experimentation, including the distinctive 3-Step beat that helped power the success of Ngibuyela Emakhaya. His work has also received industry recognition with music featured twice in DJ Black Coffee’s monthly playlist.

S Sabadala – Singer, Songwriter & Performer

Senzo Junior Dlamini, known professionally as S Sabadala, is a Ntuzuma-born singer, songwriter, actor, and performer. His artistic journey began with theatre training through the acclaimed K-CAP in Durban. His vocal versatility allows him to move between contemporary styles and traditional Zulu vocal traditions such as Amahubo. He has also appeared as an actor in Season 3 of the television series Shaka iLembe.

Collaborative Success

Together, Eman S and S Sabadala have become trusted collaborators within the Caviar Musique creative circle, contributing to releases such as “Nkosi Khuza (Rework)” with Kenton Lee featuring Zinaro and “Thula” with Kenton Lee featuring ZU-ROY and Buyie Gold.

What’s Next

The duo is currently preparing the release of their upcoming single “Abangani” scheduled for the end of March 2026, alongside a series of performances at festivals and events across South Africa.
