Jesus Christ – 4

The Prophet

The prophet

All the four Gospels narrate the public life of Jesus that starts with the baptism and ends with the passion, death and resurrection. While the Gospels agree in reporting the beginning and the end the ministry, they differ considerably among themselves as far as the sequence of events is concerned. It is therefore difficult to depict the life of Jesus in a chronological order. In the present series we are mainly following the Gospel of Mark, supposed to be the most ancient

one. Materials from other Gospels are incorporated in this historical frame work. The present story depicts of Jesus' ministry which includes the temptation in the desert, the call of the first disciples, the miracle at Cana and Capernaum and the proclamation at Nazareth.

Prophet is a person called by God, anointed by the Holy Spirit and sent out to proclaim the word of God. By the middle of the fifth century B.C. the age of the Old Testament prophets came to an end. However, the people of Israel believed that at the end of time God would again send a prophet like Moses in order to liberate them from slavery and to inaugurate the age of salvation. This belief was supported by many of the O.T. prophecies. The Nazareth episode in the Gospel of Luke presents Jesus as such a prophet. The prophecy of Isaiah(61,1-2) is quoted as the programme of Jesus' ministry. The controversy and the rejection that followed the proclamation point to the violent death to which his ministry will lead him.

Poverty and hunger, exploitation and oppression, sickness and death are all various forms of slavery from which humanity needs liberation. But the root cause of all these, according to the Bible, is sin. Through sin mankind and the whole world became enslaved to Satan, the power of evil. The temptations reported by all the Gospels depict how Jesus defeated the power of evil by choosing to follow the will of God rather than worldly power and glory. The miracles of healing and exorcism are visible manifestations of his victory and the realization of the program announced at Nazareth.

The changing of water into wine at Cana was understood by the early Church as a symbol of the Sacraments, especially Baptism and Eucharist, through which Jesus liberates us from the slavery of sin and gives us Divine life. The miraculous draught of fish was a sign of the fishermen of Capernaum could easily understand. When Jesus called them to be his disciples, with great joy they abandoned everything and followed him.

By the Sacraments of Baptism and confirmation, all the followers of Jesus are entrusted with a prophetic mission. The Holy Spirit strengthens them to resist temptations and to proclaim the Good News of liberation. The prophetic mission demands that one be totally faithful to the Word of God and be prepared to meet with rejection and persecution.

After receiving Baptism from John, Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit into the desert.

He spent forty days in the desert without any food and prayed ardently to discern the will of the Father, concerning his mission.

Father what is the way you have chosen to save the humanity?
What is your will for me?

I hear the cry of my people. I see their misery.

Jesus recalled the suffering of his people and the interventions of God in their favor.

Today under Rome. No food for those who work!

Bread....Bread

Jesus was tempted by Satan, the power of evil.

No liberation without bread.
Utter the word, turn the stones
into bread.
You are hungry, aren't you?
Now you know what it means to be hungry?

Aren't you the Son of God, sent to save the humanity?

You can turn these stones into bread. Do it and save yourself from hunger.

If you give bread the whole world will follow you. This is the way to salvation.

All the stones could be turned into bread at your word. Do it.

Give bread to the hungry. Save the world.

In the face of severe Temptation Jesus turned to scripture.

Bread and meat they ate to their fill. But they complained. They all perished in the desert.

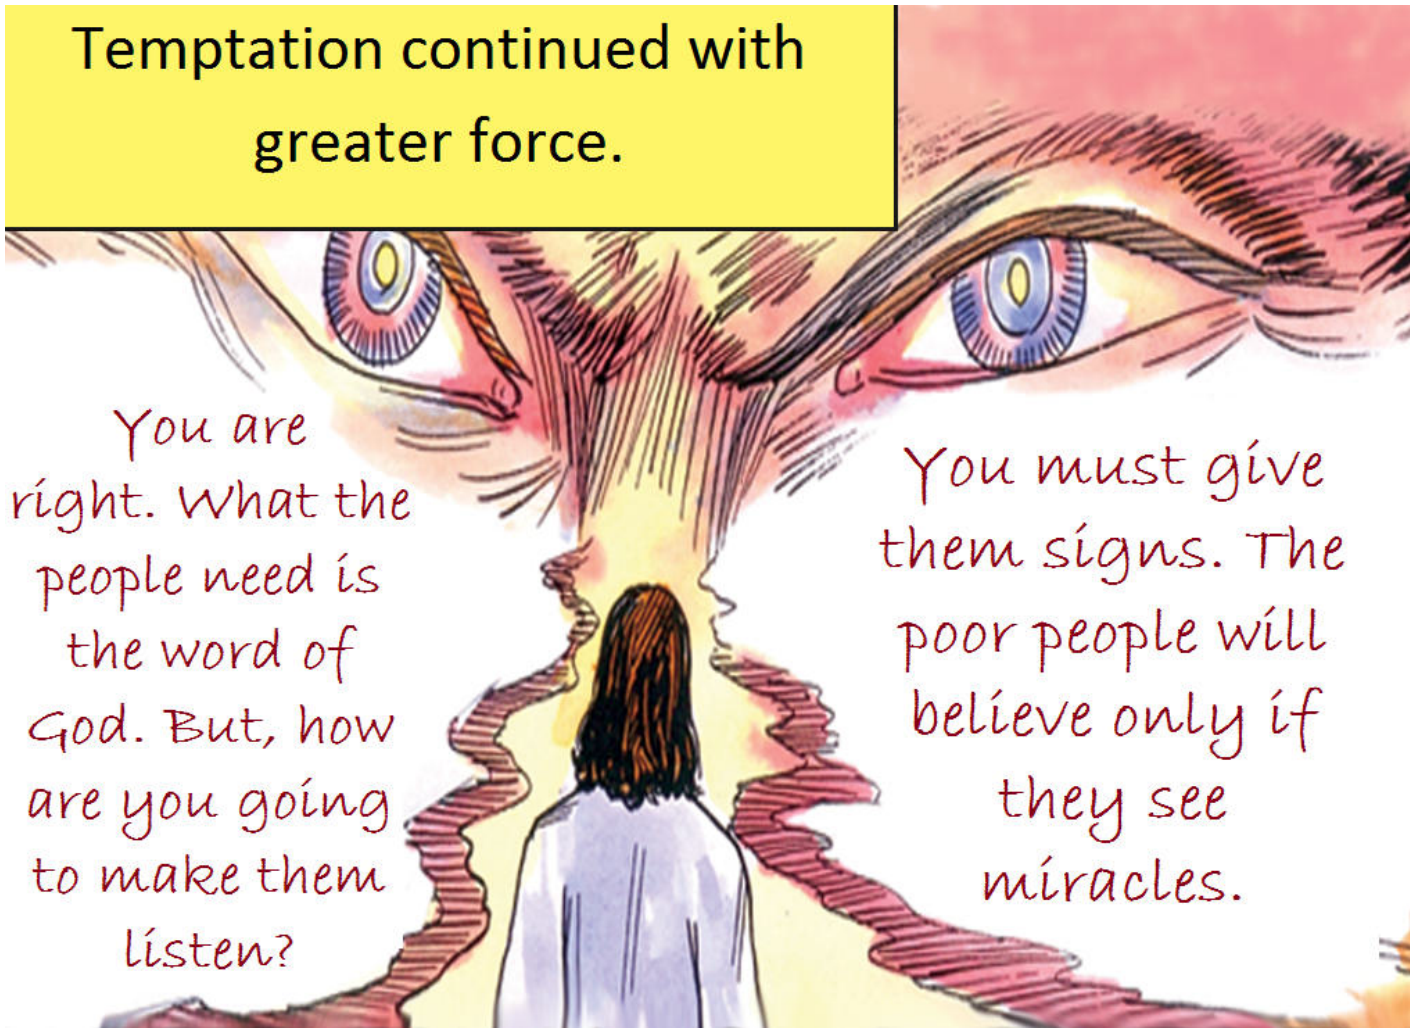

Man lives not by bread alone,
but every word that comes out of the mouth of God.

Temptation continued with greater force.

You are right. What the people need is the word of God. But, how are you going to make them
listen?

You must give them signs. The poor people will believe only if they see miracles.

Don't you know that the people are waiting for a wonder worker
as their redeemer?

Do something spectacular. A great miracle that will convince everybody that God who sent you to redeem the world.

The next moment Jesus felt that he was standing at the pinnacle of Jerusalem Temple.

Jump down! The angels of the Lord will carry you down to safety. When the people see that you are not hurt, they will accept you as the One coming down from Heaven.

It is written that you shall not put your Lord to the test.

Those who saw the miracles did not believe. No miracle can ever convince those who keep their hearts closed.

The tempter returned with even greater force.

What you said
is so true. People rejected Moses who performed miracles. But not David.

People still look at David as their savior. Aren't they waiting for the son of David to liberate
the people of Israel?

Don't you see the misery of your people?
Aren't they the slaves
of the Roman empire?

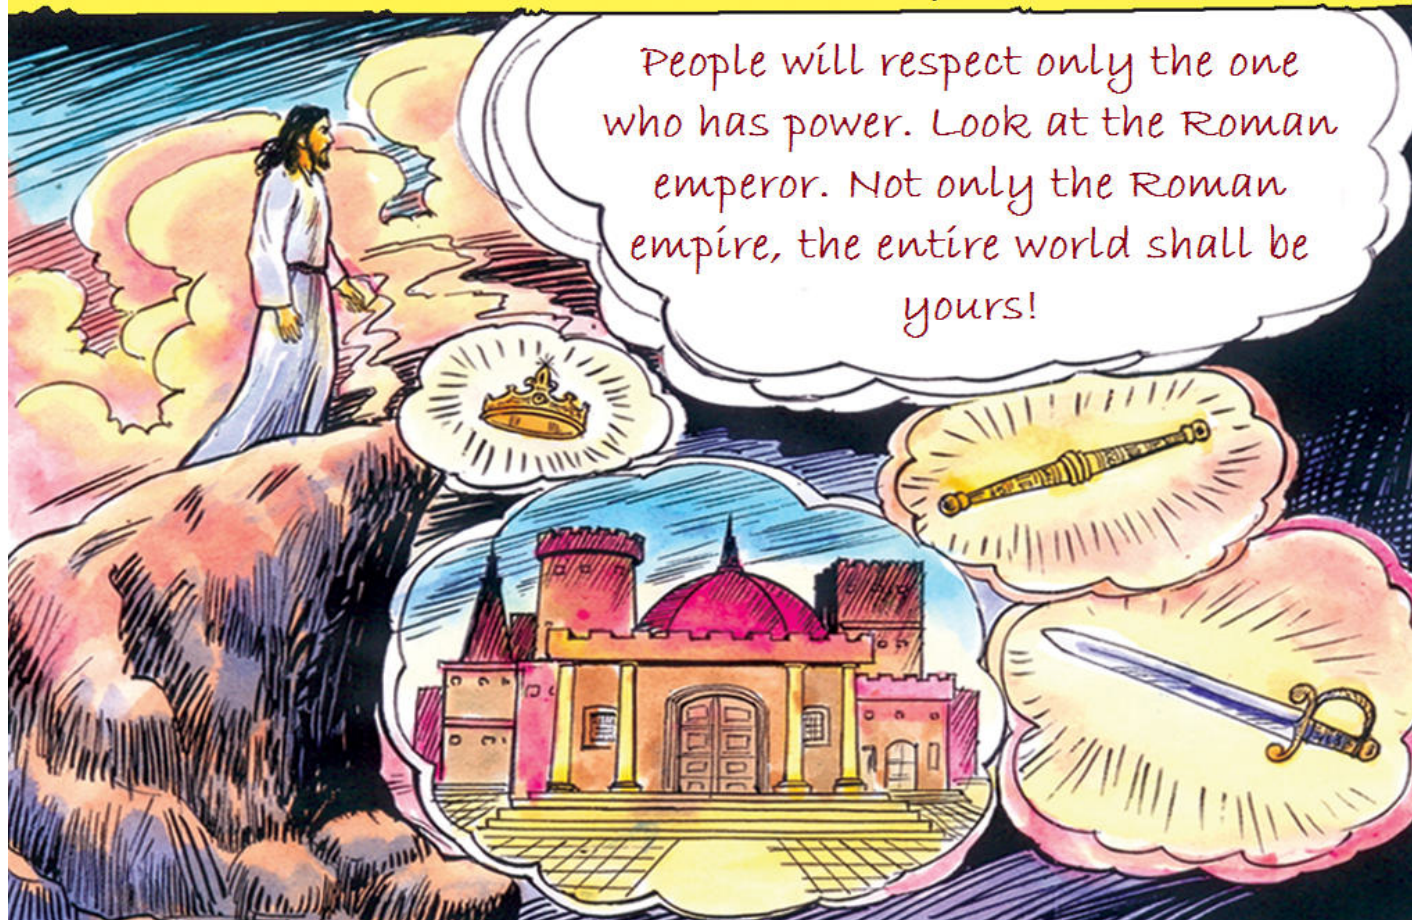

“A shoot springs from the root of Jesse.
His word is a rode that strikes the ruthless”.

Go, take up arms. Be brave like David. Save the people from slavery!

Jesus felt that he was standing on top of a high mountain. All power and glory of the world flashed before his eyes.

People will respect only the one who has power. Look at the Roman emperor. Not only the Roman empire, the entire world shall be yours!

Have power. Take up the leadership. Put an end to oppression.
Establish justice!

Just bow down before me. I shall make you the lord of the universe.

The Same voice that Adam heard
in the Garden of Eden.

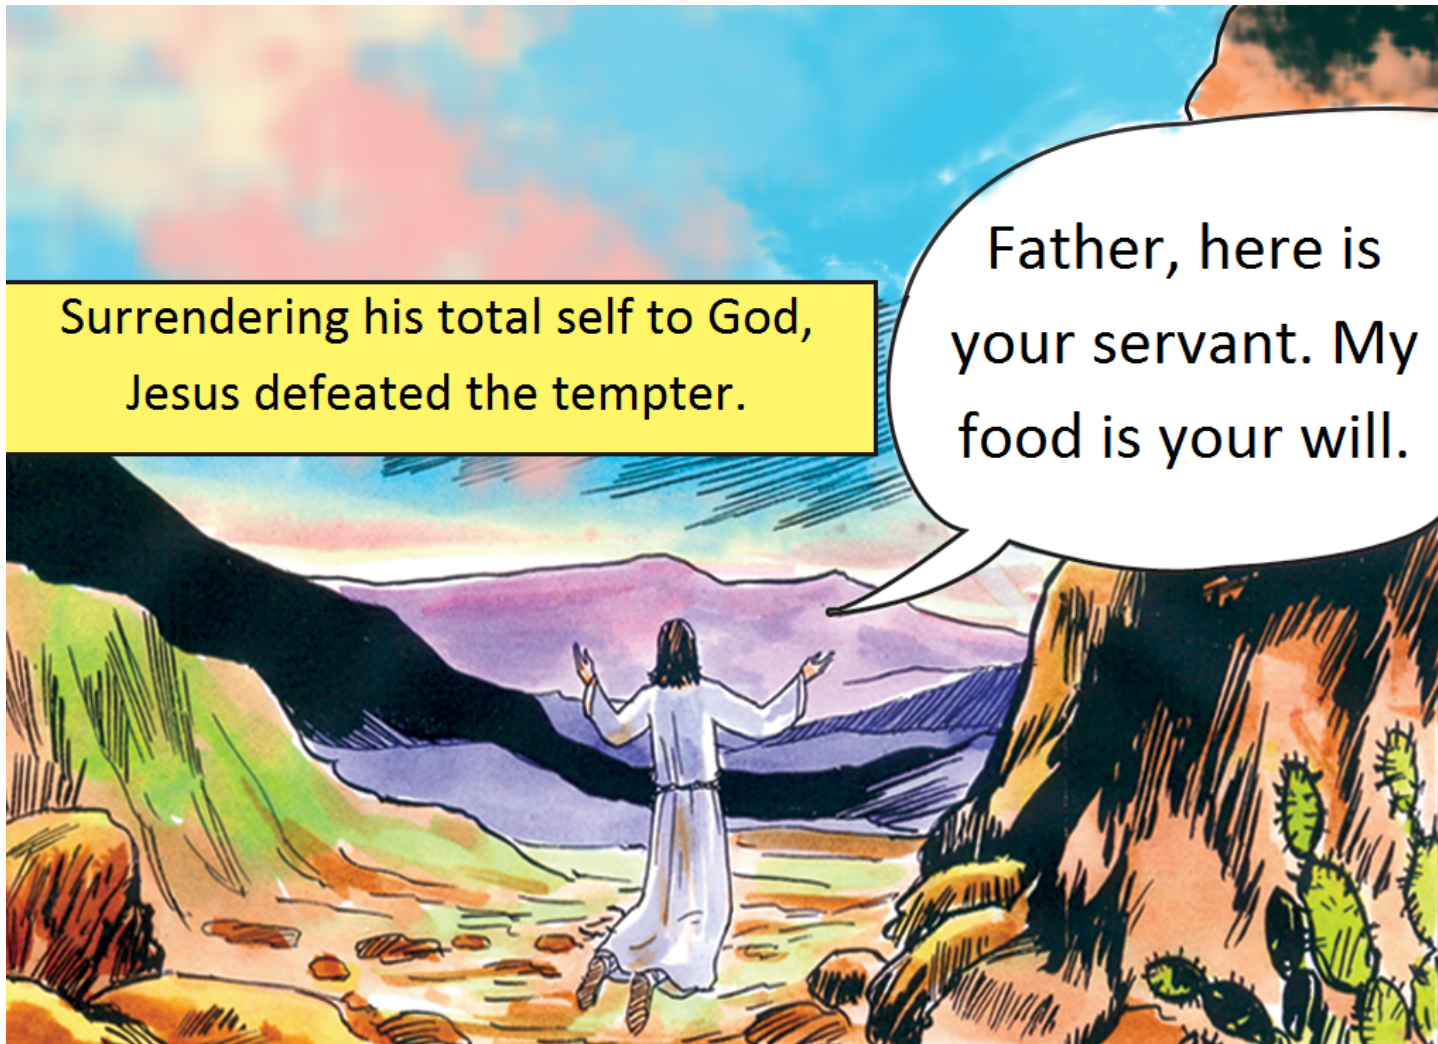

Be gone Stan! It is written: "You must worship the Lord your God and serve Him alone".

Surrendering his total self to God,
Jesus defeated the tempter.

Father, here is your servant. My food is your will.

Jesus returned from the desert. The power of the Holy Spirit was with him.

Who are you?

I am John. This is Andrew.
We were disciples of the Baptist.

What are you looking for?

Master, where do you live? We would like to follow you.

John, Andrew, come with me.

Master did you know that they arrested the Baptist?

Why are you arresting that innocent man?

Didn't you know
that it is dangerous to speak against the king?

Danger is not to the one who speaks but
to the one who does evil. Repent!

They took him to the fort
of Macherus.

It is the vengeance of the queen. We don't know what is going to happen next.

The Zealots under Barabbas are planning to free John by force. How soon it all ended! Master, is there any chance for truth and Justice to survive?

This is not the end but only the beginning. People have not yet learned the ways of Truth.

!!

They reached Nazareth.

Mother Shalom!

Shalom my son! So long I have been waiting to see you. These must be your friends. Good to have you here. Shalom.

You must be hungry.

Starving, feel like I can eat a horse.

Tomorrow Abiah is getting married at Cana. We all must go.

We..?

Sure, friends of Jesus are our family members.

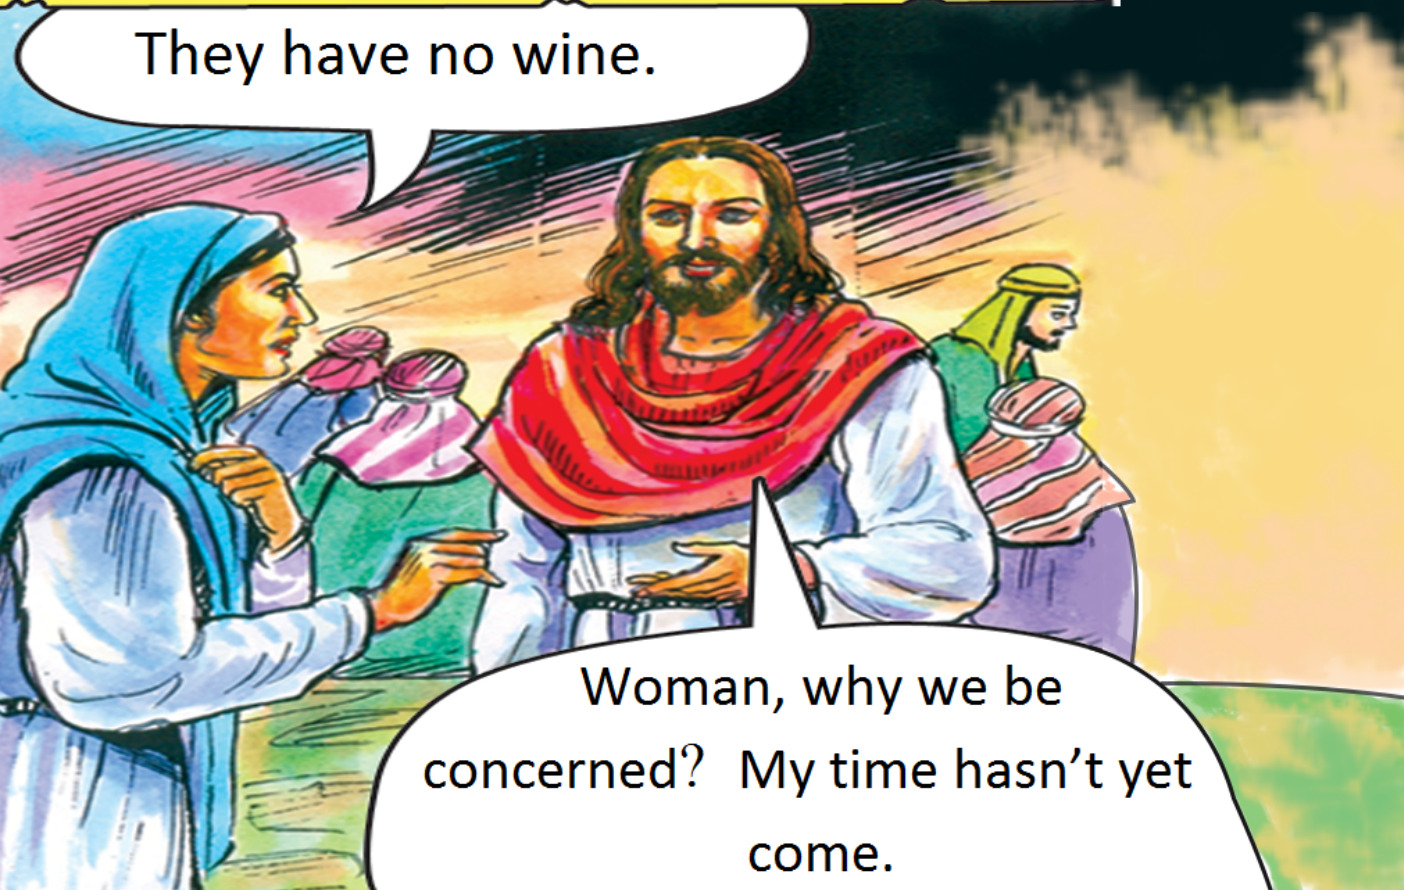

Wedding at Cana.

Mary Called Jesus out of the banquet hall.

They have no wine.

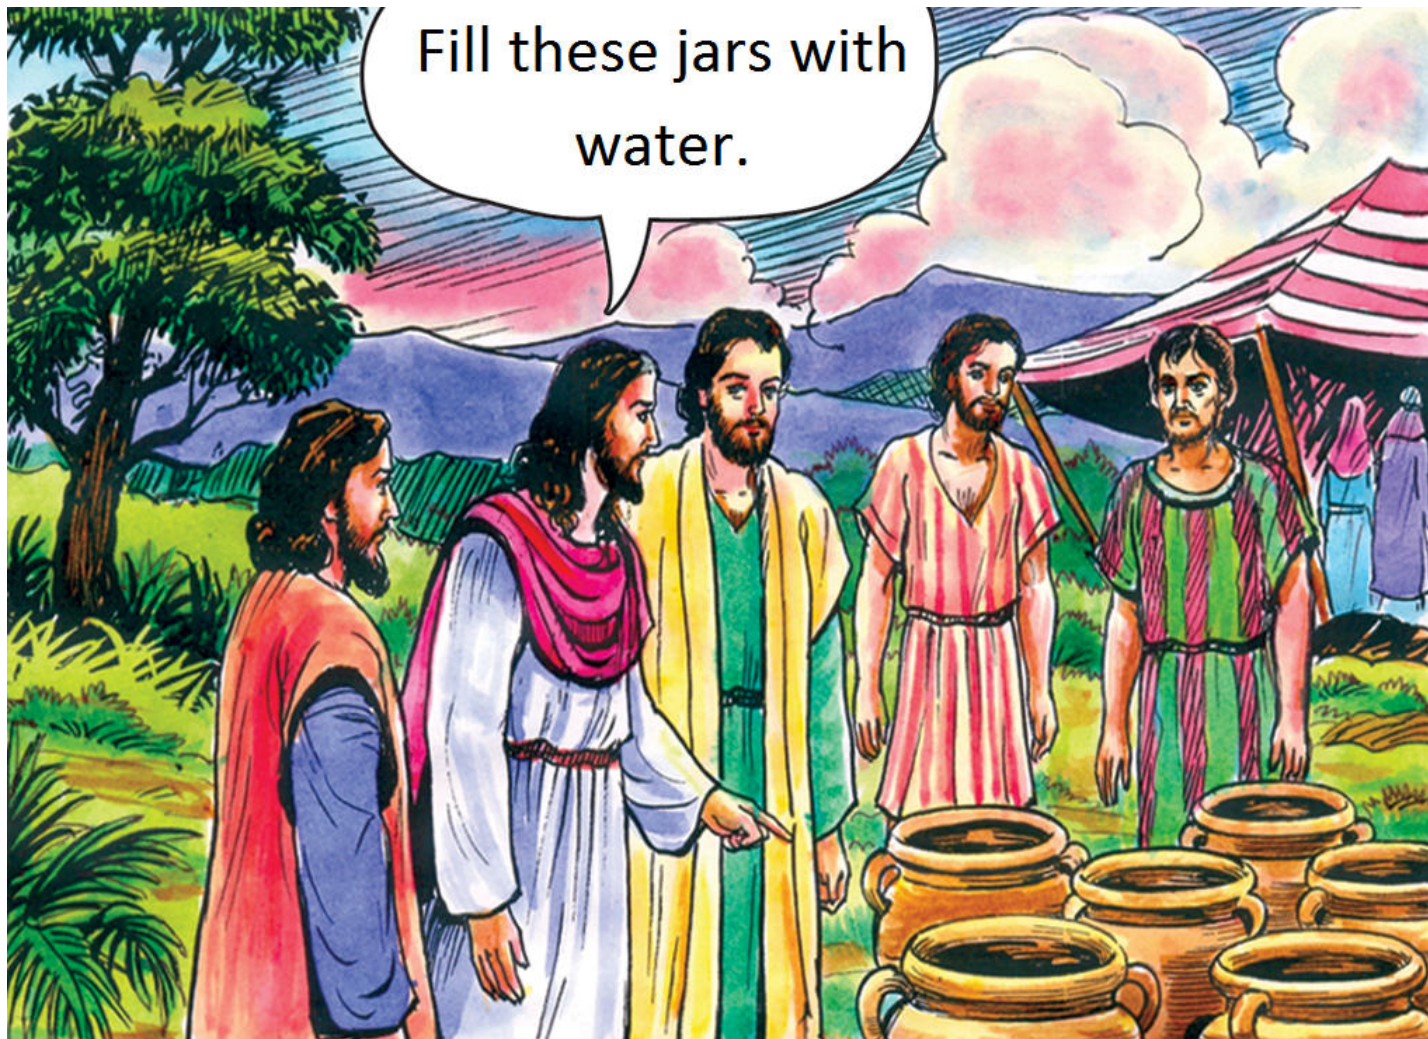

Woman, why we be concerned? My time hasn't yet come.

Mary told the servants.

Do as Jesus tell you.

Fill these jars with water.

They filled the jars to the brim.

Draw some out now and take it to the steward.

The steward tasted the wine.

Good! In all my life I have never tasted such a good wine.

The steward said to the bridegroom.

You saved the best wine for the end.

John, a great miracle has happened right in front of our eyes.

No doubt, Andrew, this is the Messiah we have been searching for.

They went to Capernaum.

That is Capernaum.

They have a big synagogue there.

Also a big tax office.

Mathew is the tax collector, a merciless
creep!

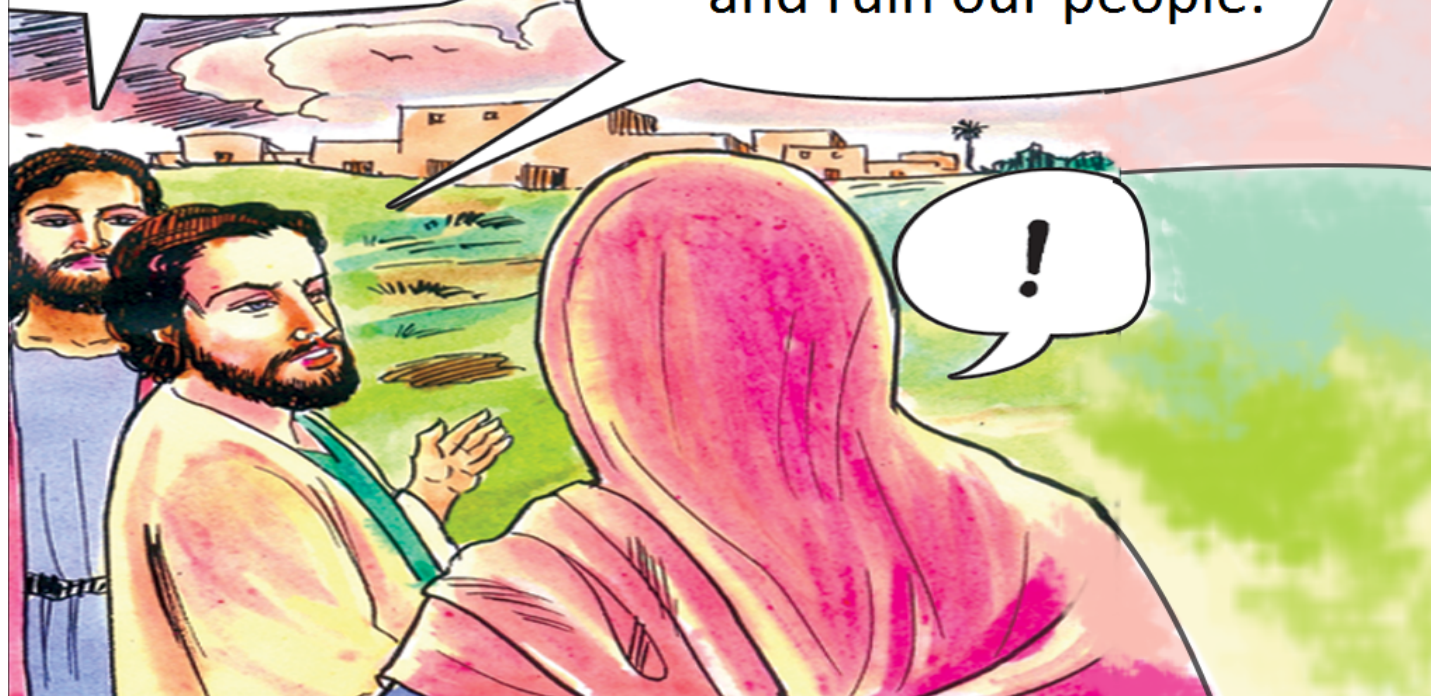

Taxes for Herod, taxes for the Romans.
Under the pretext of taxes he is plundering the people.

Poor fishermen. They have to give most of what they catch as taxes.

Last year Barabbas and his men broke into his office and burnt all the documents. Since then he is a little scared.

He has the protection of the army. There are many like him who serve the Romans and ruin our people.

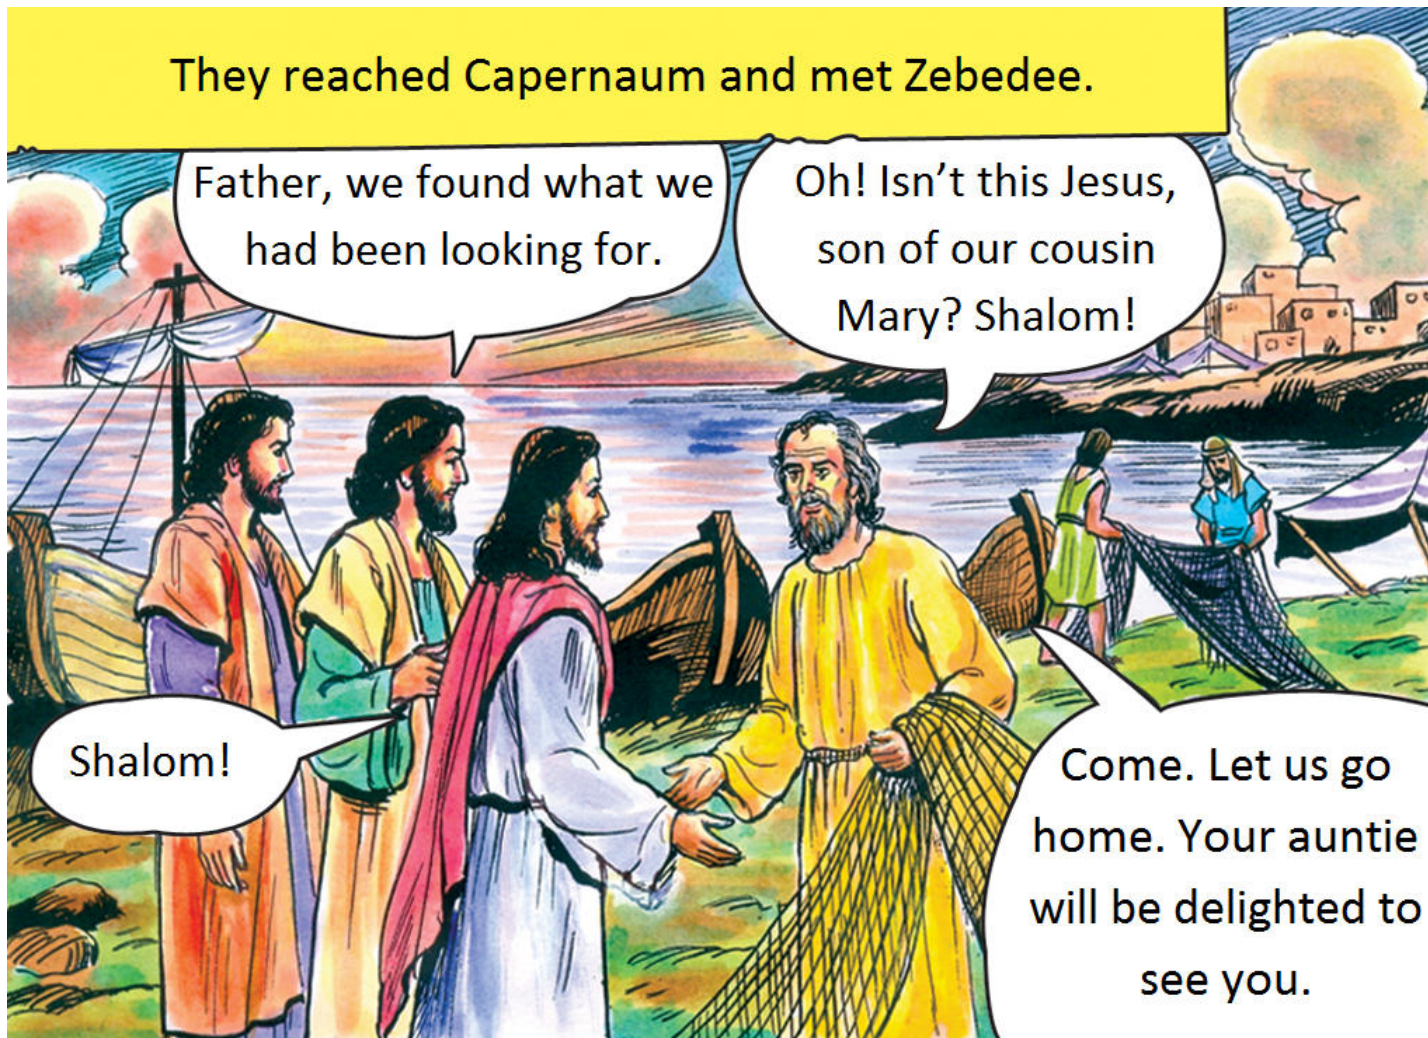

They reached Capernaum and met Zebedee.

Father, we found what we had been looking for.

Oh! Isn't this Jesus, son of our cousin
Mary? Shalom!

Shalom!

Come. Let us go home. Your auntie will be delighted to see you.

Salome, look who is here!

Auntie,
Shalom!

Shalom, my son.
What is new in Nazareth? How is Mary?

The next day
they went to the Synagogue for the Sabbath
prayer.

Brethren, we have a guest, Jesus of Nazareth. He will explain the scripture to us today.

Brethren, we have reason to rejoice because the long awaited time has arrived. Our forefathers longed to see this day.

How can you say this when the people are starving and dying of sickness? The Romans are still ruling over us.

If the kingdom of God is here, where is our freedom? Where is the prosperity promised by the prophets?

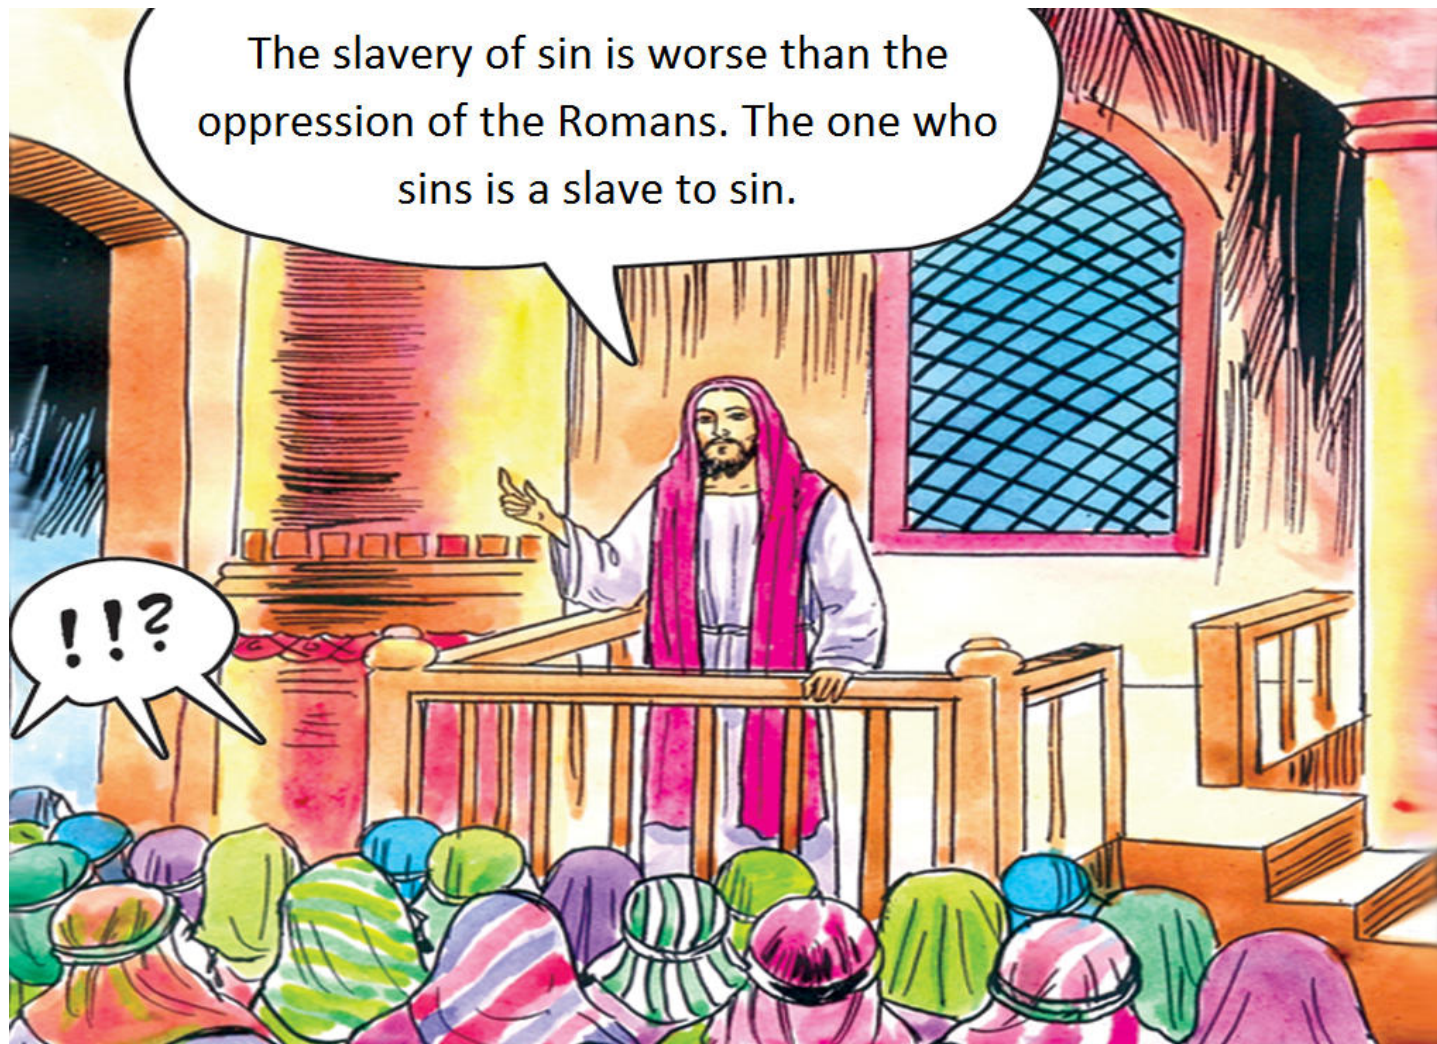

Open your hearts.
Repent and return to the Lord. You shall be free.

The slavery of sin is worse than the oppression of the Romans. The one who sins is a slave to sin.

Satan's rule over the world, established in sin, has ended.

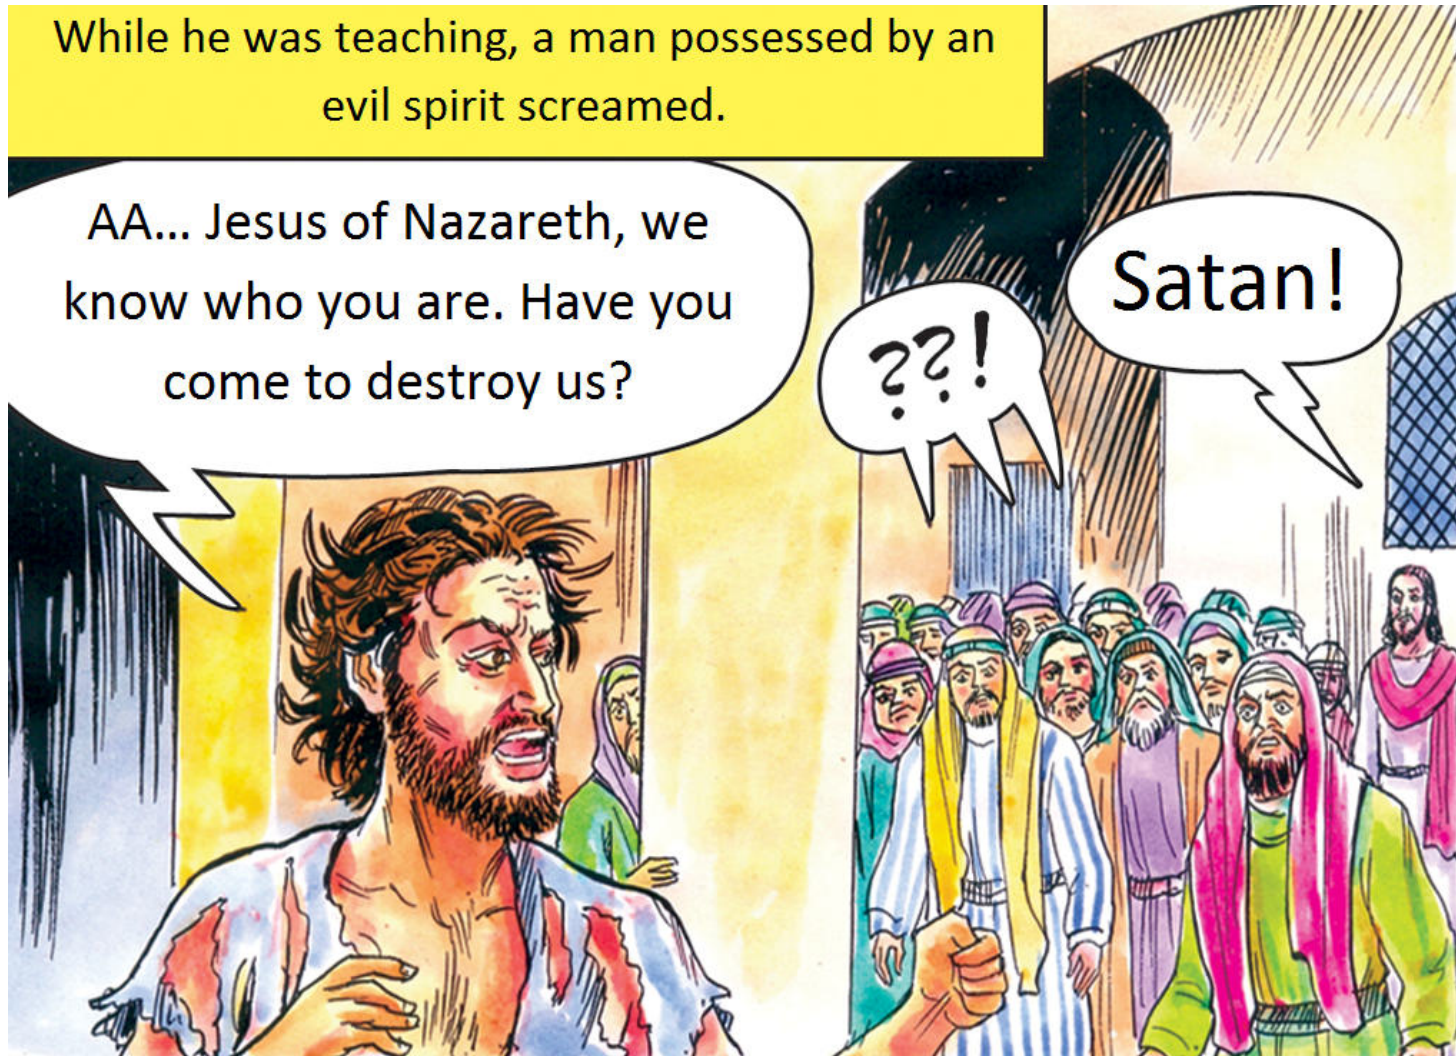

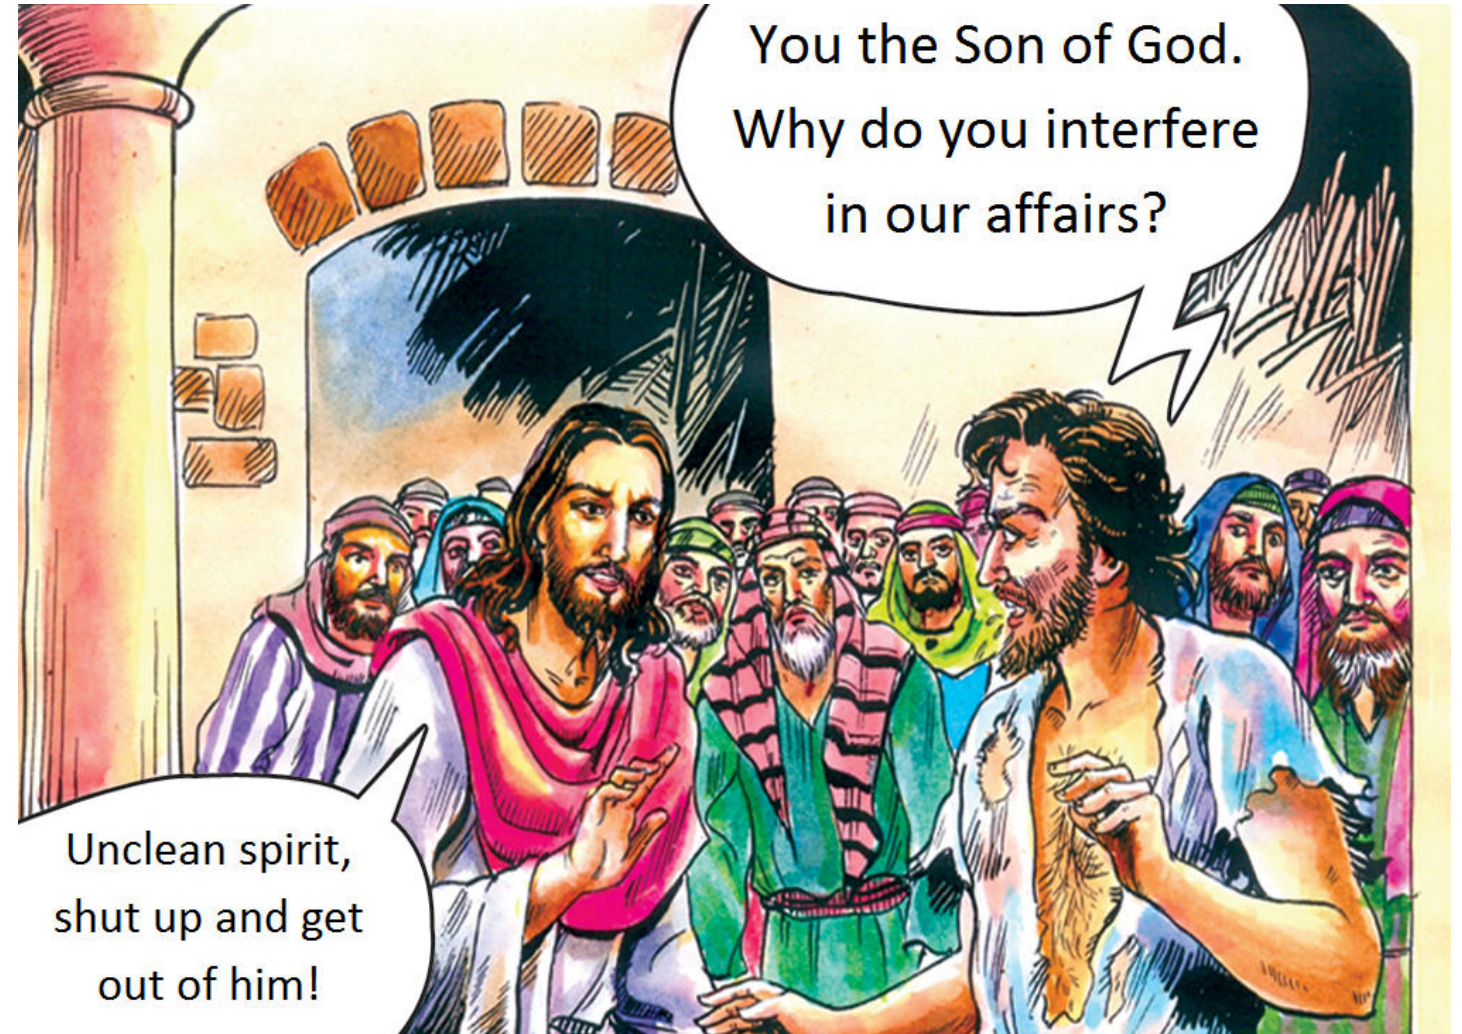

While he was teaching, a man possessed by an evil spirit screamed.

AA... Jesus of Nazareth, we know who you are. Have you come to destroy us?

Satan!

A colorful illustration depicting a biblical scene. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe with a pink sash, stands on the left, gesturing with his right hand. He is looking towards a man on the right. The man has long brown hair, a beard, and is wearing a white tunic. He is gesturing with both hands, palms facing each other, as if speaking or arguing. Behind them is a crowd of men in various colored robes (purple, green, blue, pink) and head coverings. The background features a large archway with a row of five square stones above it, and a tall, reddish-brown column on the far left. A large, jagged lightning bolt is visible in the upper right background.

You the Son of God.
Why do you interfere
in our affairs?

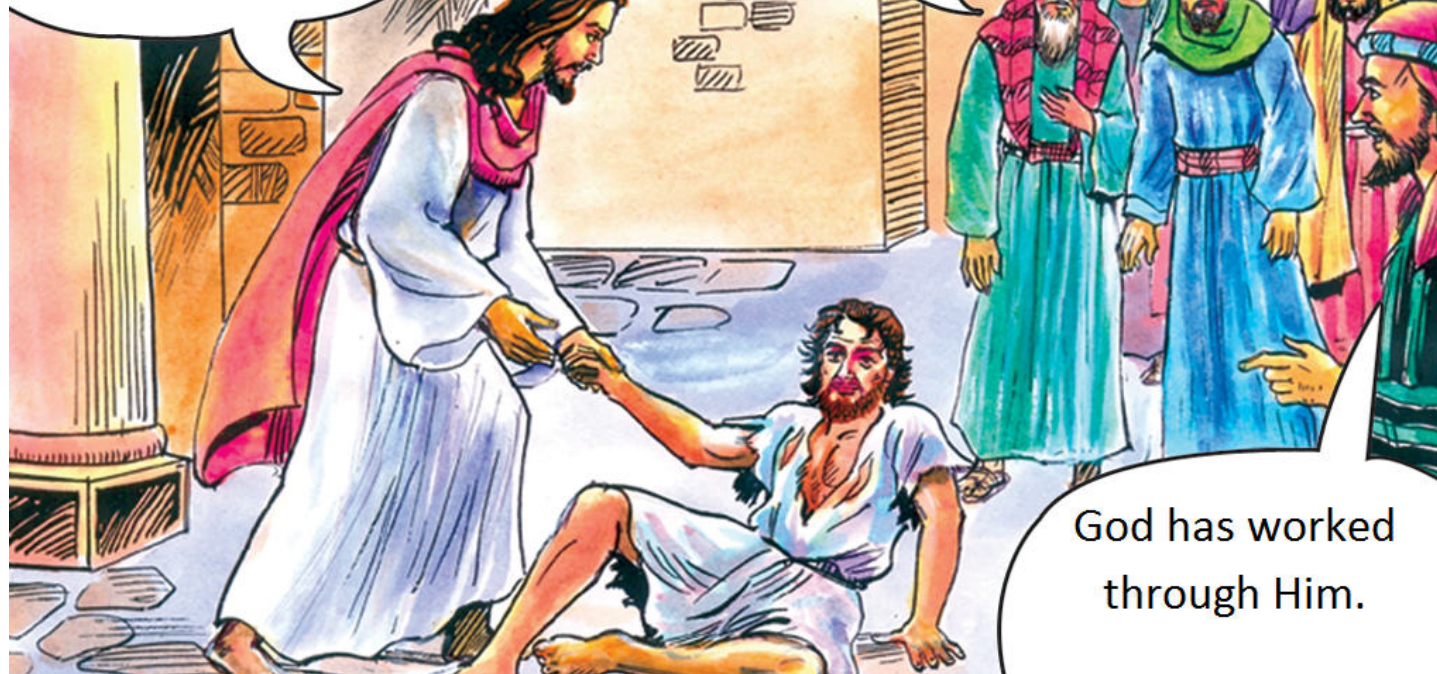

Unclean spirit,
shut up and get out of him!

The possessed man fell to the ground and the evil spirit left him.

Get up. Be free from the power of evil.

Who is this? What is this power?

What an authority he has! Never heard anything like this before.

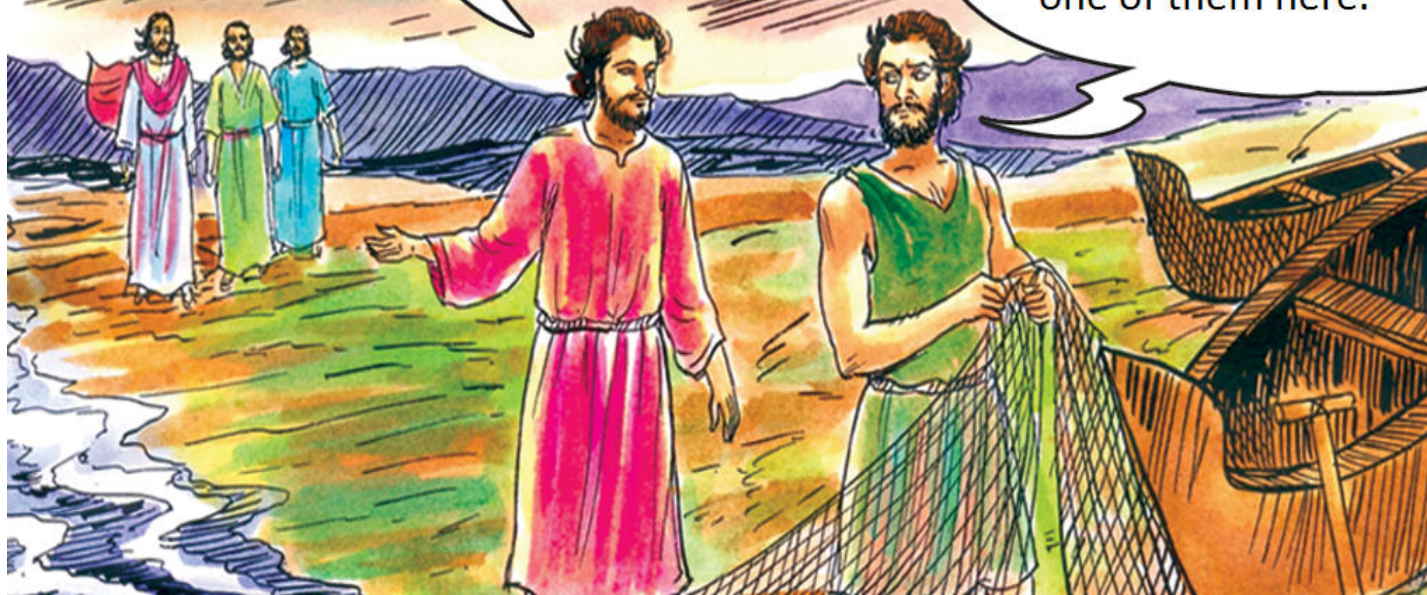

God has worked through Him.

The incident at the Synagogue became the talk of the town.

What?

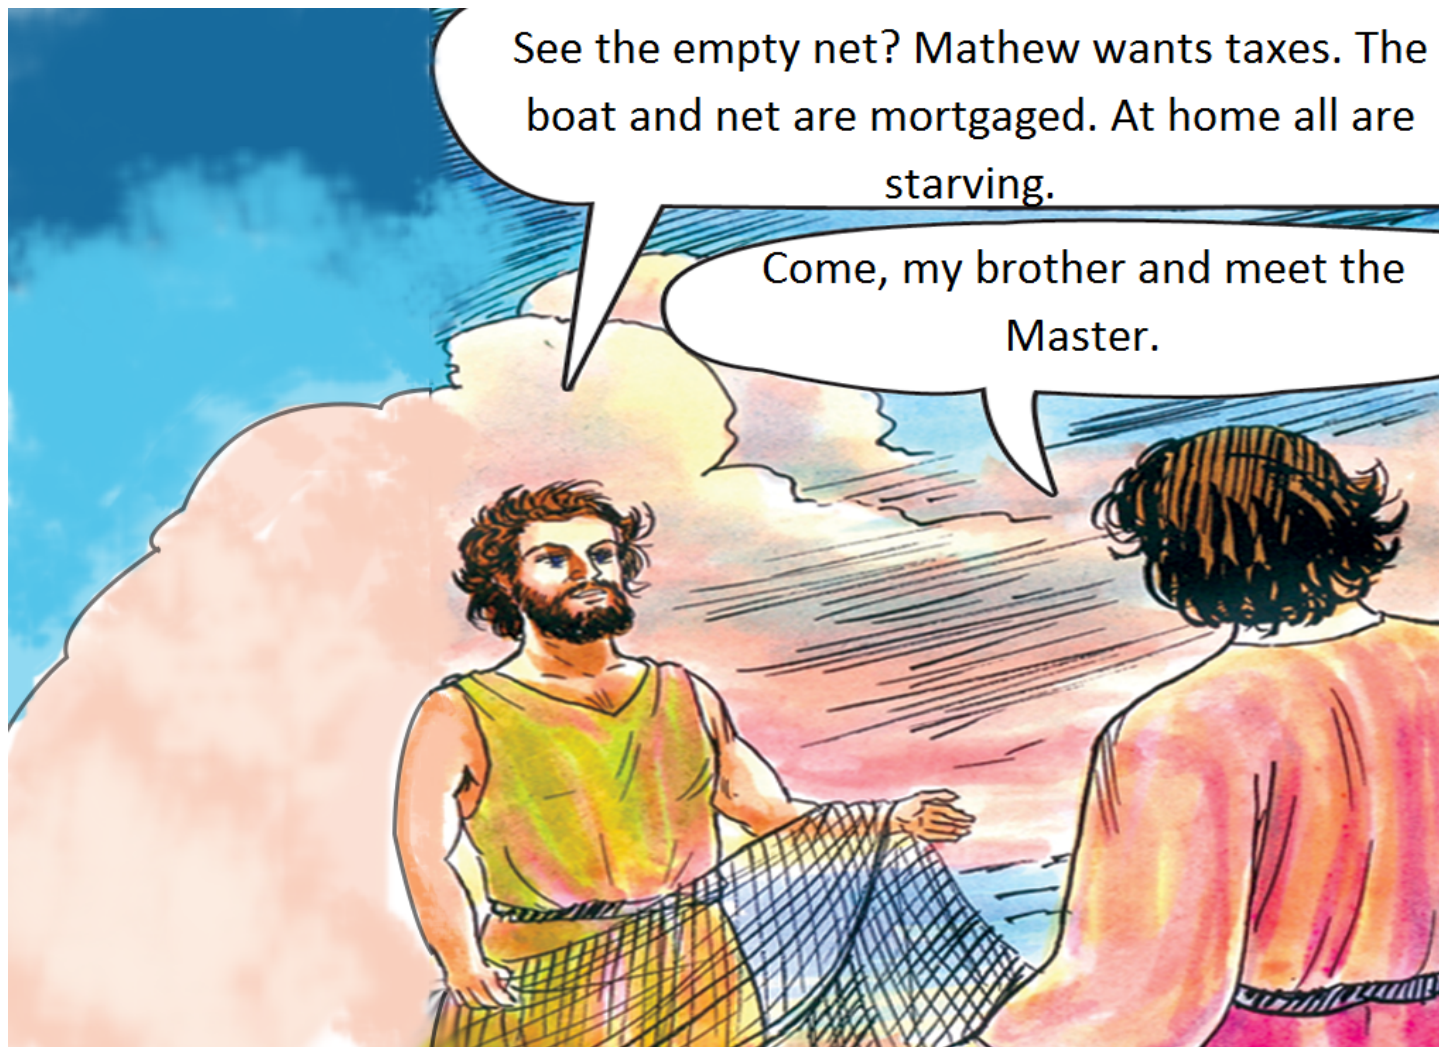

Simon, here is the Master! I told you about. It is about him that the Baptist told us.

Another preacher? We work day and night and still go empty stomach. We don't want another one of them here.

See the empty net? Mathew wants taxes. The boat and net are mortgaged. At home all are starving.

Come, my brother and meet the Master.

You and your Master! Ask him to preach to the fish and persuade them to enter my net, if he can.

Simon!

Simon, cast into
the deep.

All night we had been working hard and caught nothing. Are we going to get any fish in the day light?

Simon, just do
what the Master
says.

What does this carpenter from Nazareth know about fishing?

Simon, you do not know who this is.

All right, if you insist. Ask your Master to convince the fish to enter the net!

They went into deep waters with Jesus.

Obeying Jesus, they cast the net.

When they pulled
the net.

Feels like a whale got into this.

Be careful don't tear the net.

Zebedee's boat was nearby. Both boats were filled with fish.

Lord, I am a sinner. I am not worthy to have you in my boat.

Don't be afraid.
Come with me.
I shall make you
fishers of men.

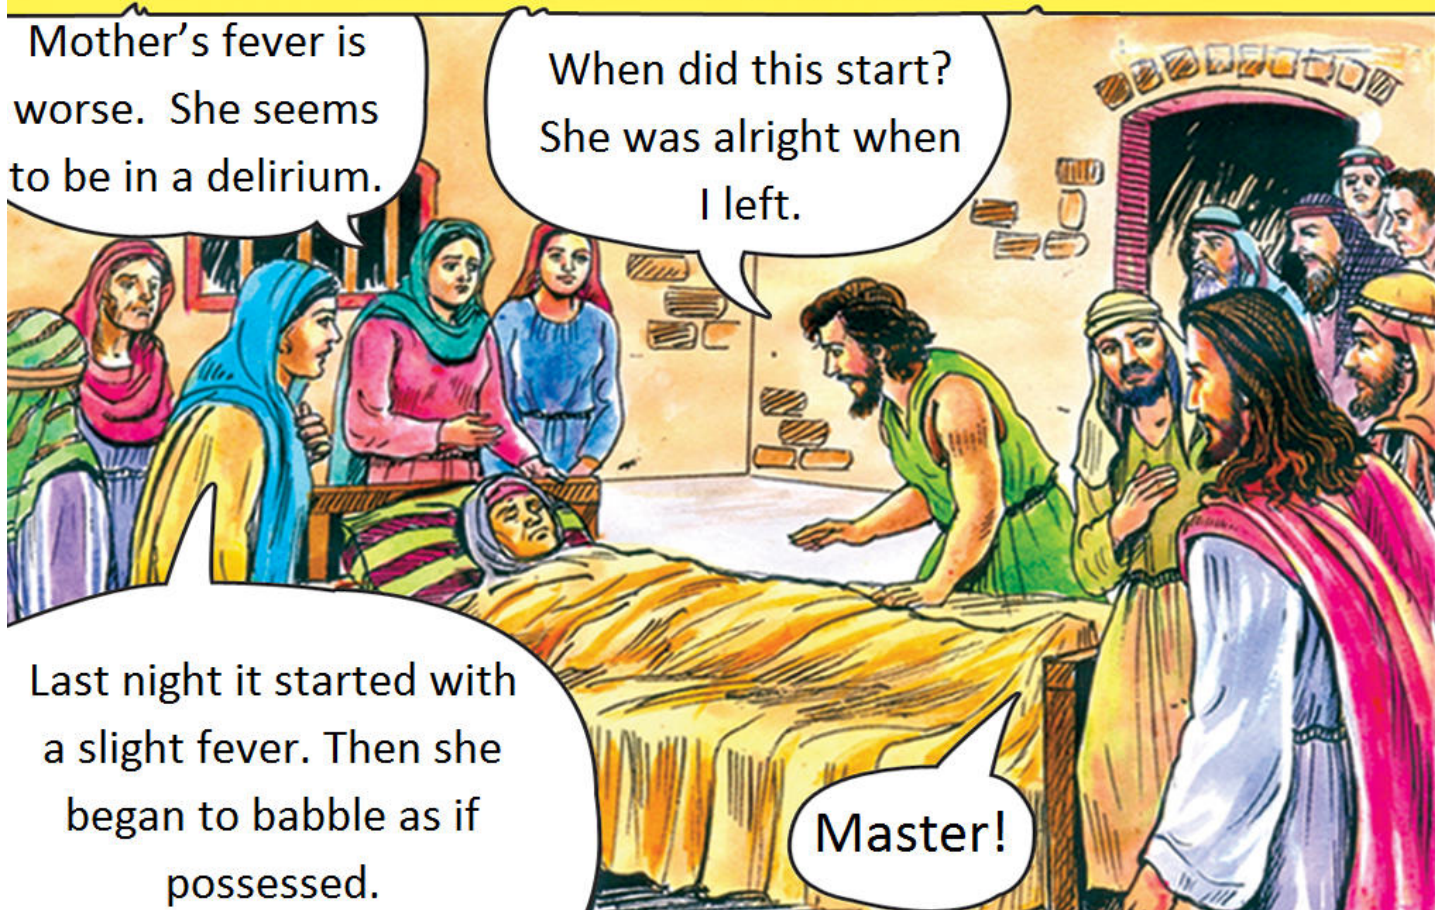

After pulling the boat to the shore, they went to Simon's. Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with fever.

Mother's fever is worse. She seems to be in a delirium.

When did this start?
She was alright when I left.

Last night it started with a slight fever. Then she began to babble as if possessed.

Master!

Jesus lifted her by hand and the fever left her.

What are you all staring at? Simon, Don't you see that the Master is still standing? Ruth, go to the kitchen. I am coming.

That evening they brought to him many who were sick, crippled or possessed by demons. Jesus cured them all.

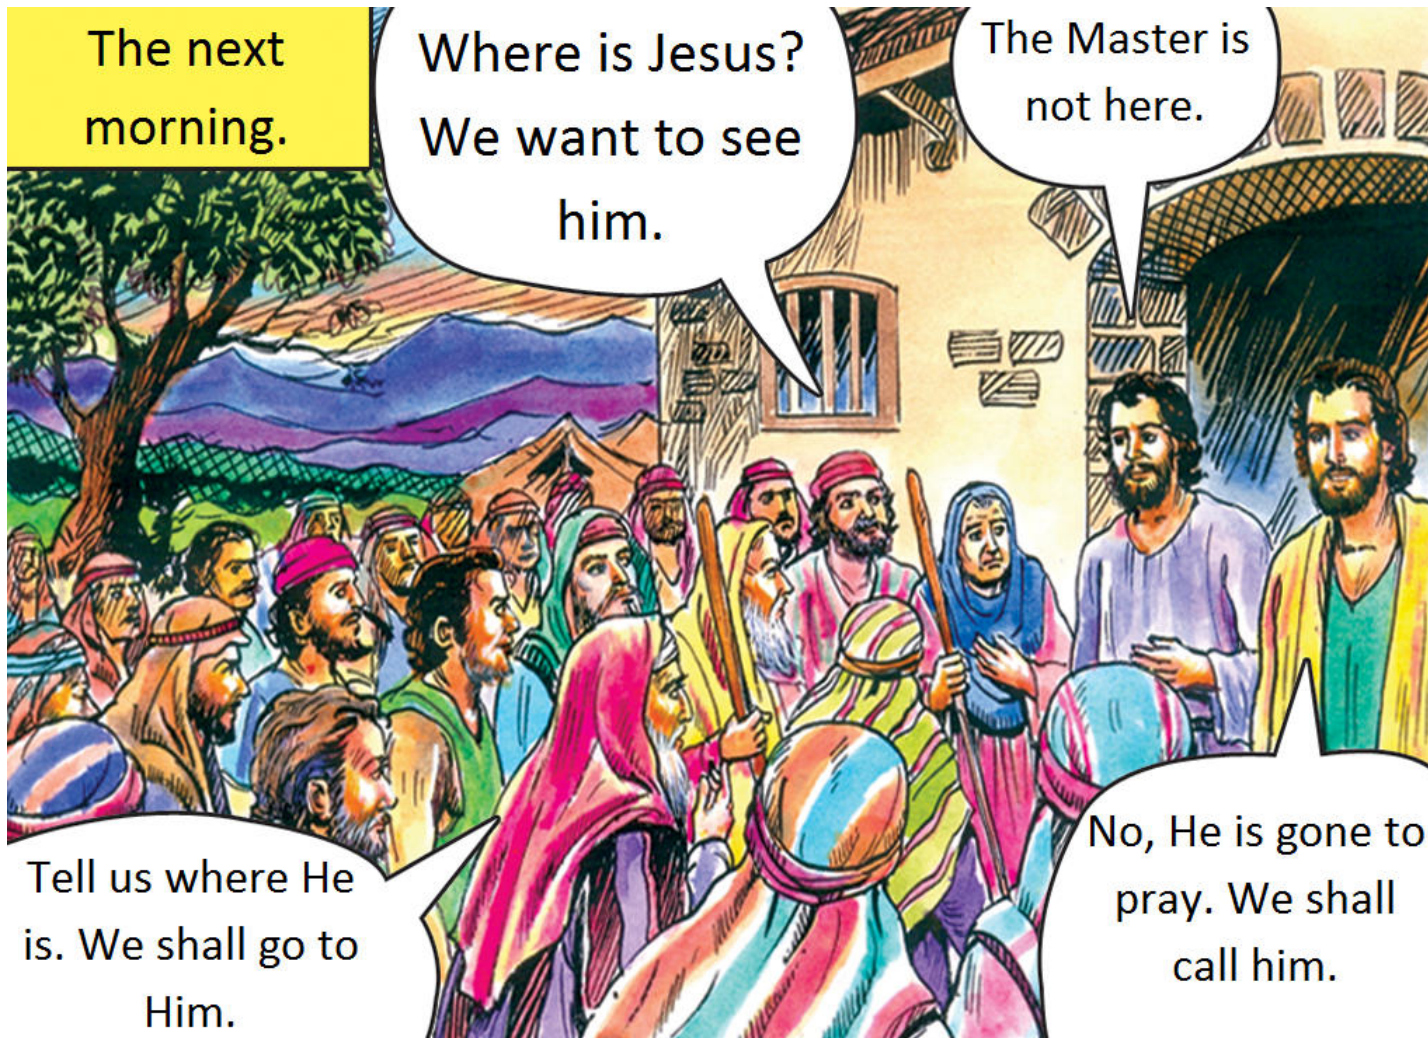

The next morning.

Where is Jesus?
We want to see him.

The Master is not here.

Tell us where He is. We shall go to Him.

No, He is gone to pray. We shall call him.

Early in the morning Jesus had gone to a lonely place to pray. They met him there.

Master, there is a big crowd at our house.

Please come with us.

It is for this that I have been sent.

Jesus went through the villages and towns of Galilee, preaching the Good News and healing the sick. On a Sabbath day he came to the Synagogue at Nazareth.

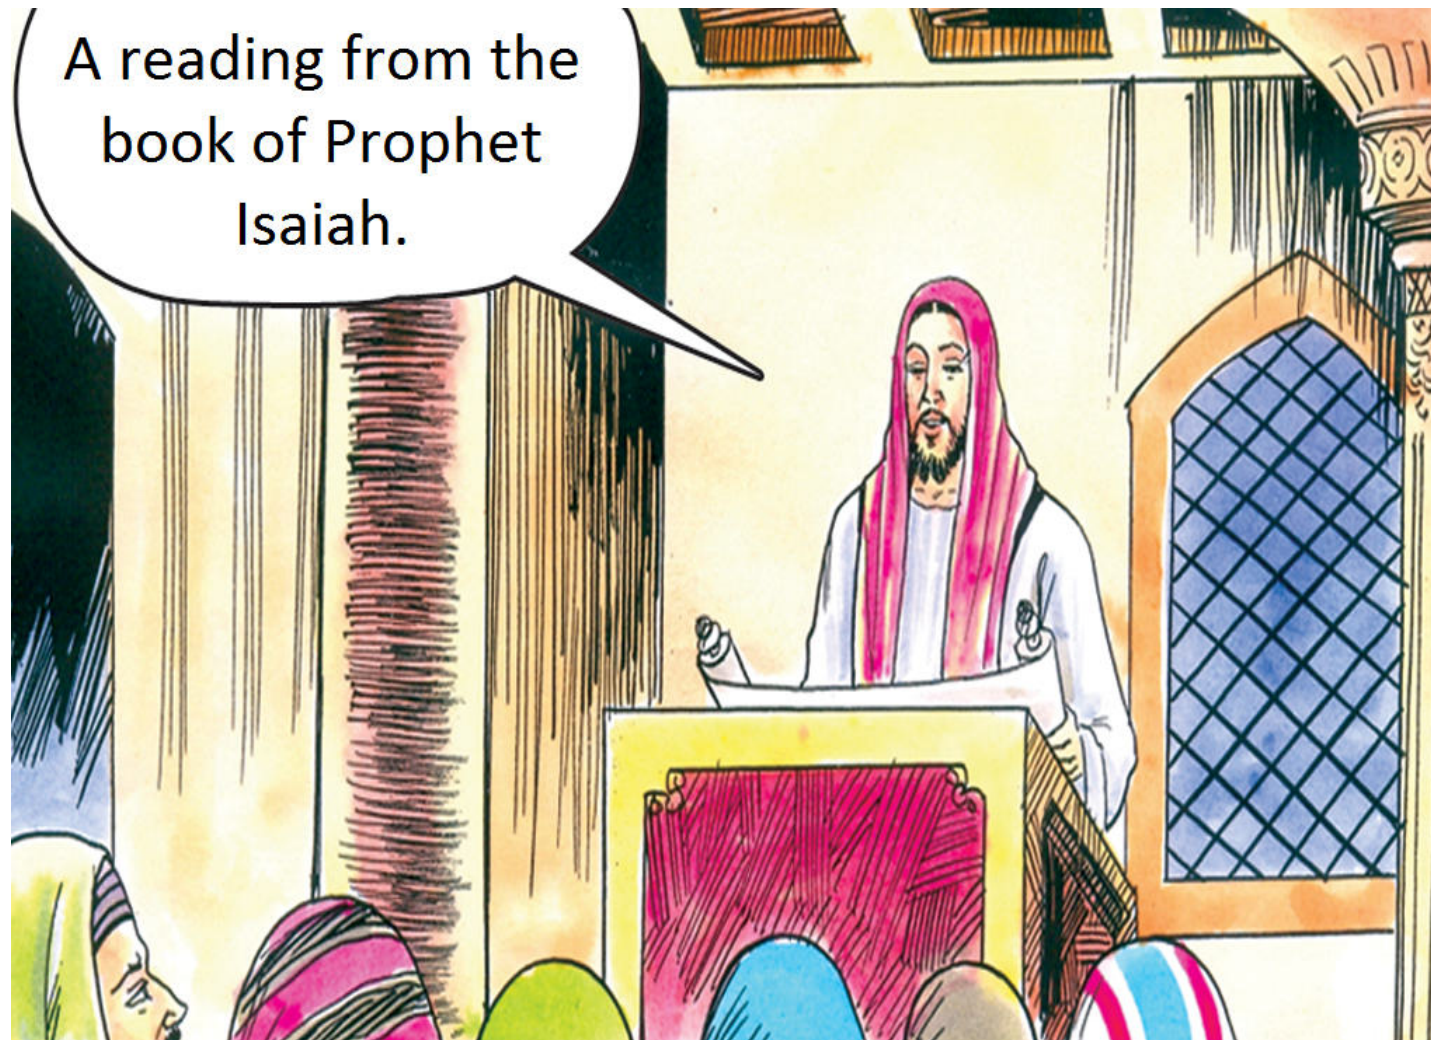

Lord God of our Fathers, we praise you and thank you for blessing us with the gift of your life giving commandments.

Amen,
Amen.

After the introductory prayers.

A reading from the book of Prophet Isaiah.

"The spirit of the Lord is upon me.
For he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the Good News to the poor".

“Liberty to the captives, sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed and to proclaim the Lord’s year of favor”.

After the reading.

These are the very words the prophet spoke to the exiles who returned and were forced into slavery by hunger and unpaid debts.

Why did he stop the reading in the middle?
He left out the day of Punishment.

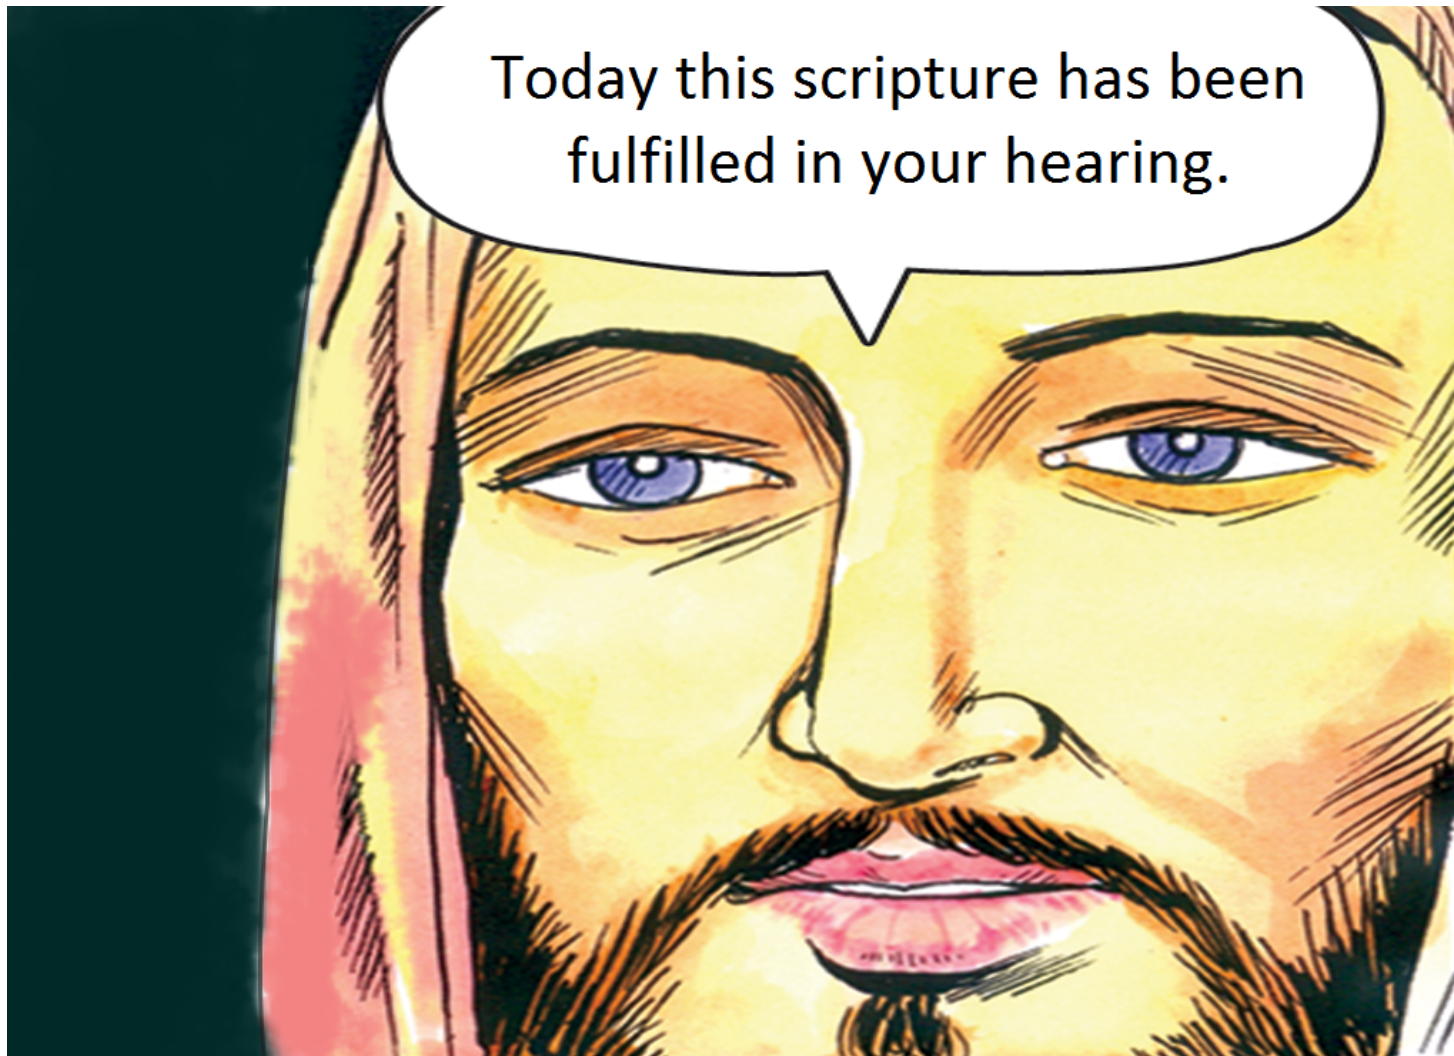

Keep quiet! Let us hear what he is saying.

The Words of the prophet are the promise of the Lord. Promise to all who live in slavery.

Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.

How well he speaks!
Words of Grace!

Who is he to say that? Only when the Messiah comes that text will be fulfilled.

What did he say? The scripture is fulfilled?

Isn't he the son of Joseph, the carpenter?

Repent and believe in the good News.

I have a chair he built. Now pretending to be
the prophet.

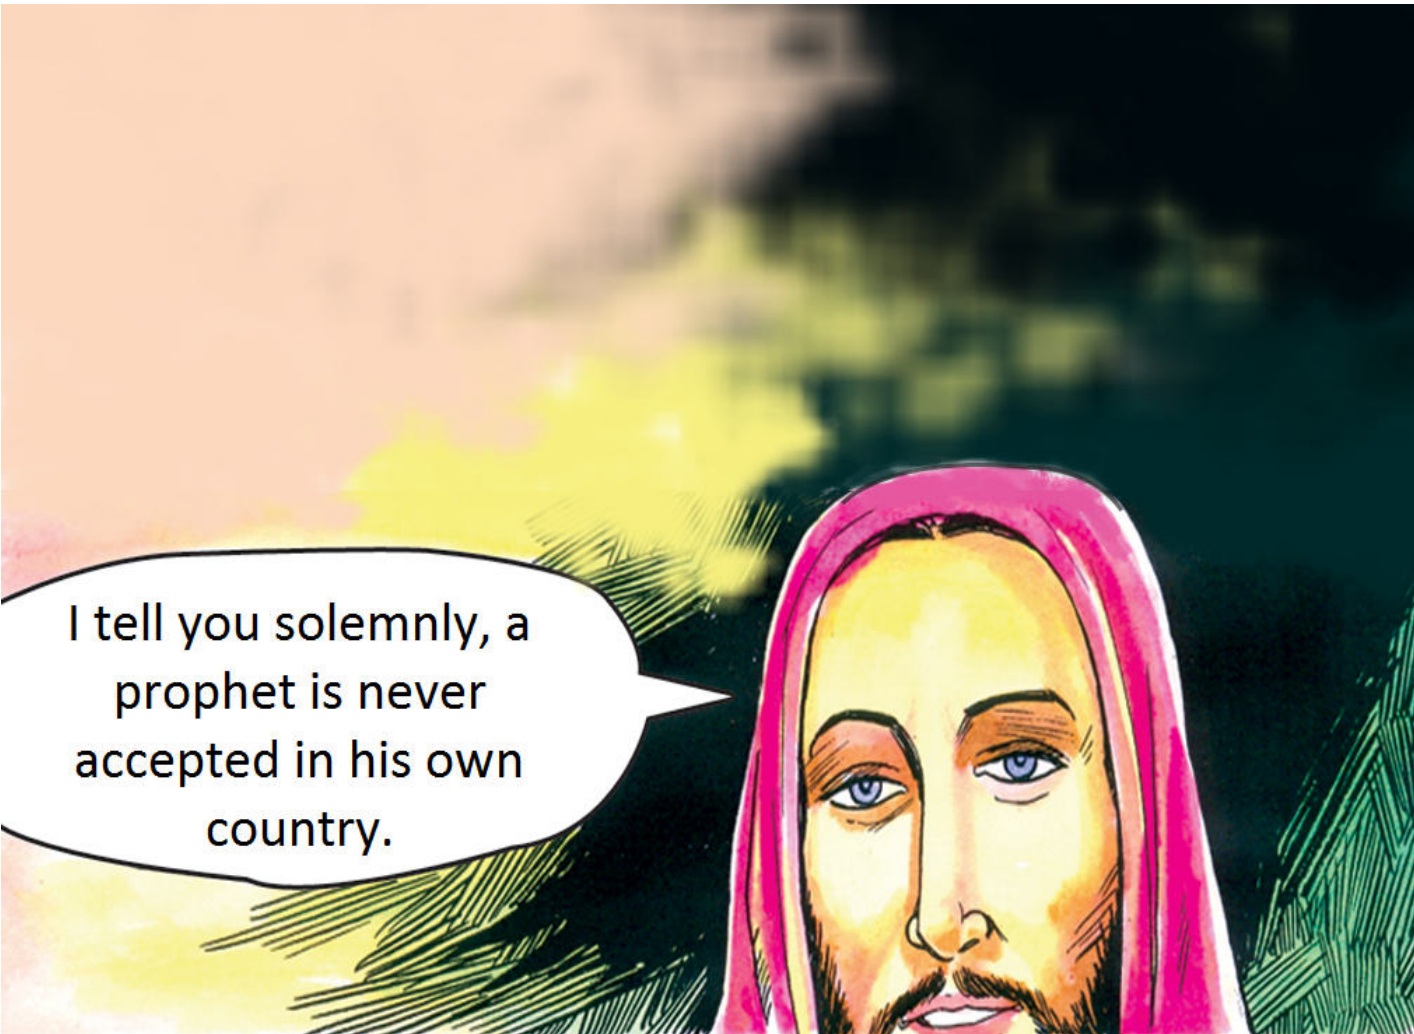

What sign do you show that we may believe in you?

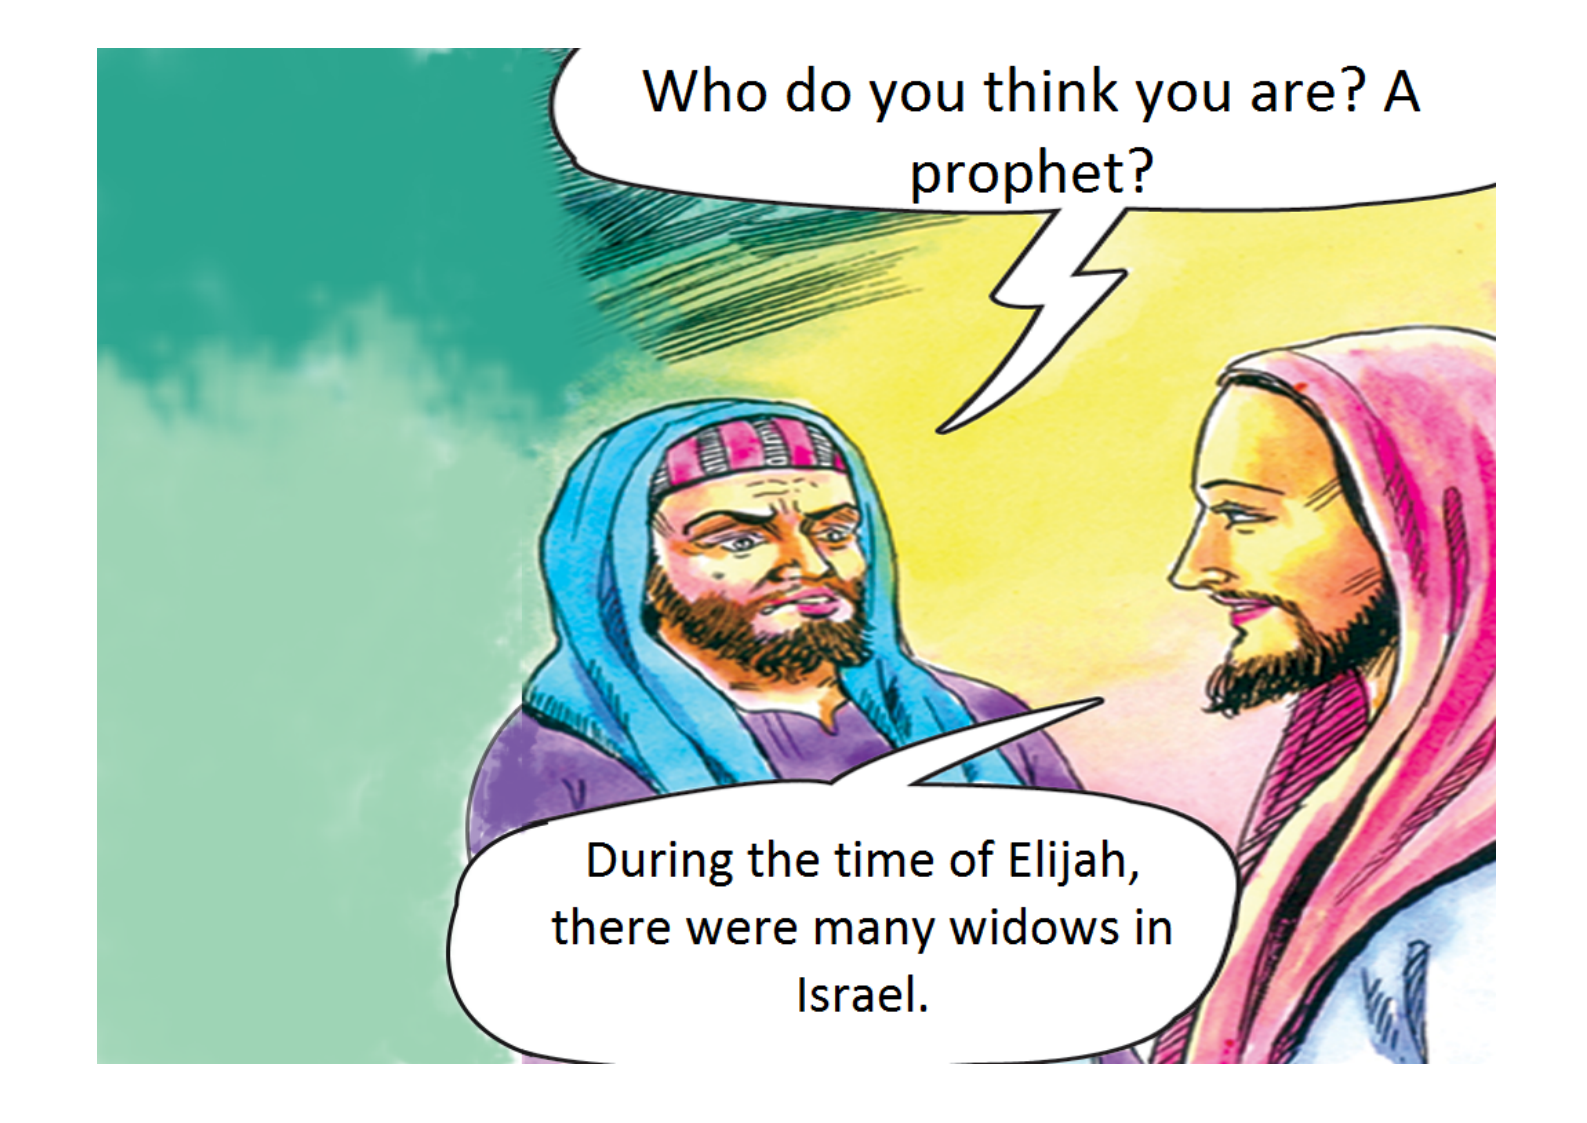

We heard you worked many miracles in Capernaum. Do the same here, in your home town.

Physician, heal yourself!

I tell you solemnly, a prophet is never accepted in his own country.

Who do you think you are? A prophet?

During the time of Elijah,
there were many widows in Israel.

But when there was drought and famine, it was to a widow of Zarephath that the prophet was sent.

Be careful of what you are saying!

During the time of the prophet Elisha, there were many lepers in Israel, but none of them were healed except Naaman the Syrian.

Did you hear what he said? He considers us lepers and widows!

According to him God prefers the accursed gentiles to Israel.

Catch him!

The people in the Synagogue became furious and took him out of the city.

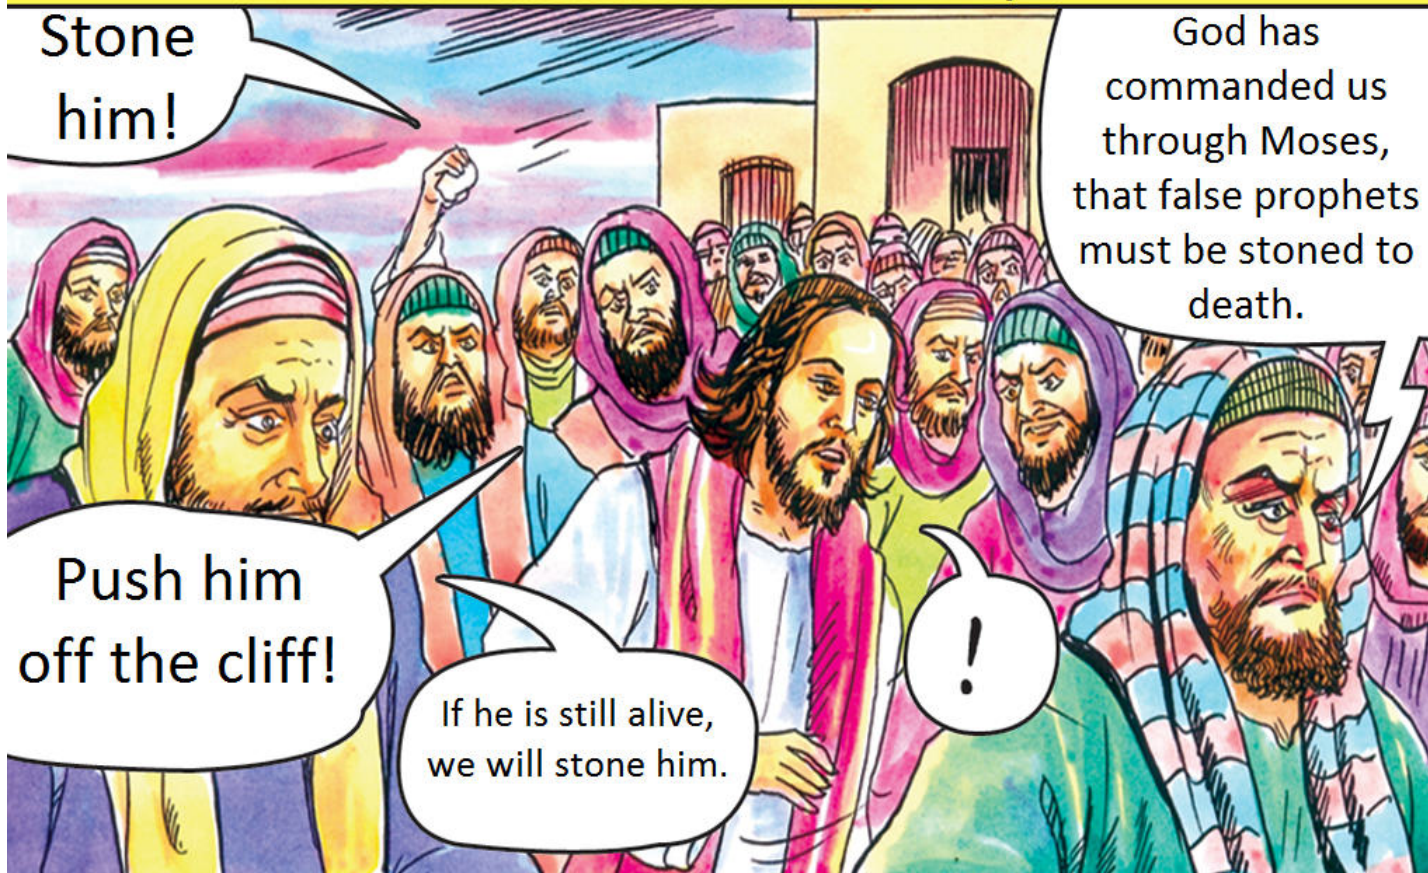

Stone him!

God has commanded us through Moses, that false prophets must be stoned to death.

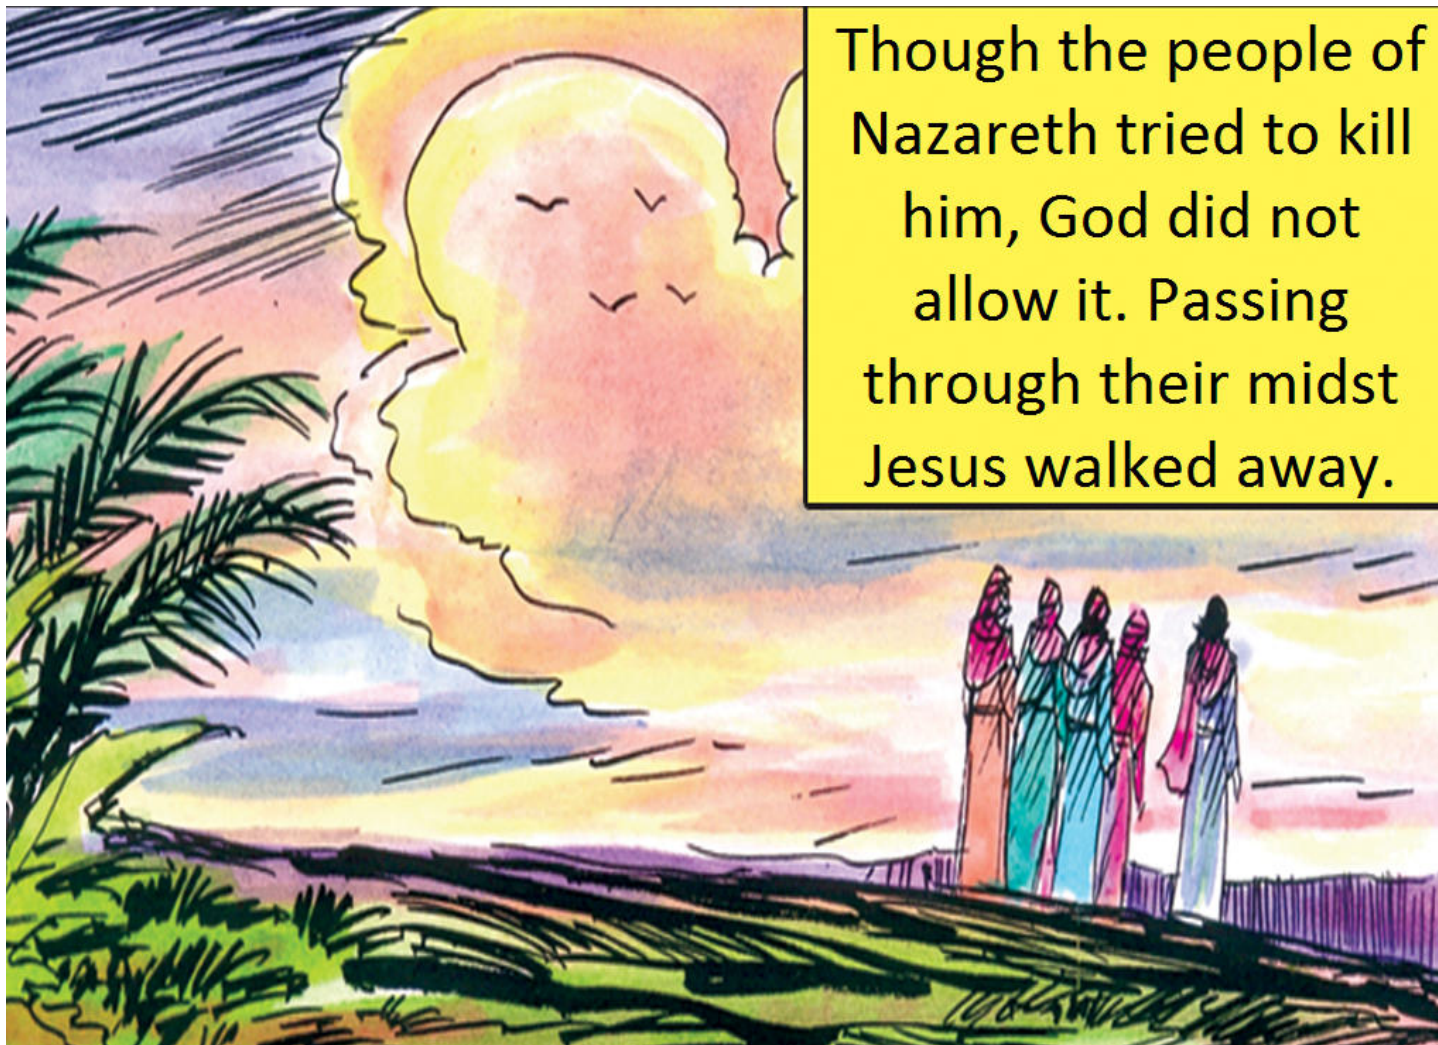

Push him off the cliff!

If he is still alive, we will stone him.

Though the people of Nazareth tried to kill him, God did not allow it. Passing through their midst Jesus walked away.

The shadow of the cross fell on the path of Jesus who proclaimed the Good News of liberation. In the midst of opposition Jesus carried out his mission.
