Preamble:

We, the members of Jalalabad Association of Toronto, Canada, in our commitment to fostering cultural, social, and economic support within the community, do hereby establish this Constitution. Recognizing the association’s charitable status, we strive to serve as a pillar of unity and advancement for members of the Jalalabad community within the Greater Toronto Area. Through this association, we aim to embody ideals of equity, inclusivity, and service that reflect the values and heritage of our community.

Vision:

To be a trusted charitable organization that supports and enhances the lives of our community members by promoting inclusion, equal opportunities, and social engagement. Jalalabad Association of Toronto is dedicated to fair practices in its interactions and collaborations with community members, service providers, and governmental bodies. Our vision emphasizes a commitment to providing services and resources that help members thrive socially and culturally.

Values:

“The Jalalabad Association of Toronto, Canada, is committed to the elimination of discriminatory behavior, policies, or practices that prevent or undermine the full and equal participation of all who wish to join and pursue the mission of the organization.

Discrimination can happen overtly, covertly, and by omission. We will take proactive steps to ensure that full and equal participation is possible. We want to work towards anti-oppression and be conscious of our privileges, create an environment where all members in our community are respected for their abilities and potential. We commit to building a cohesive community culture within the ideology in which equality, equity, diversity, respect, and dignity are fundamental. This statement serves to remind us all that diversity in our society is a strength, and is our fervent belief, and that we must ensure to treat all with equality, equity, respect, and dignity”. It will embody our ideals and aspirations, ensure tranquility, promote the general welfare, freedom, love, and peace.

Constitution of Jalalabad Association of Toronto, Canada

This Constitution shall be the supreme authority governing the Jalalabad Association of Toronto, Canada. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Constitution and any bylaws, policies, resolutions, or other governing documents of the Association, the provisions of this Constitution shall prevail and supersede all such other documents. No bylaw, resolution, or policy shall be enacted, amended, or interpreted in a manner that contravenes or undermines the provisions outlined in this Constitution."
