From the Minister's Desk . . .

-- I will be on vacation leave between the 12th and 19th of April. If there are any general church inquiries, please feel free to call the church office at (604) 796-2680 or email agassizunited@shaw.ca. For pastoral emergencies, please contact Rev Dr. Laura Hermakin. I will be back to my regular availability on the 20th of April.

Old Time Fiddle Dance: Sunday, April 12 @ 1:00 – 4:00 PM in the church hall. Featuring the Central Fraser Valley Fiddlers. This family-friendly event is a fundraiser for the Mission and Service Fund. Tickets by donation, minimum $10. Tickets still available on Sunday or by e-transfer until Saturday evening: AgassizUnitedDonations@shaw.ca .

Earth Day Presentation featuring a representative (Jet Takaota) from the Canadian Foodgrains Bank: Thursday, April 23 @ 5:00 PM. The Foodgrains Bank is based in developing countries (including some adversely affected by climate change) to meet emergency food needs and to achieve long-term solutions to hunger. Come find out how our Mission and Service funds are at work in the world. Pizza and conversation after the presentation. $2.00 admission at the door. A sign-up sheet will be available next week. ~Outreach & Social Justice Team

Readers Theatre: Counsel for the Defence. Pontius Pilate is on trial. Is he guilty? April 26 @ 12:30 – 1:15 PM. All Saints Anglican Church. Admission to the 45-minute presentation is by donation.
