From the Minister's Desk . . .

In my desire to come to know and learn about everyone here at Agassiz United, I am happy to introduce "Educating Phillip!" This is an opportunity to come and tell the new minister anything you think he needs to know about this community of faith. This could be anything from "I'm not a morning person" to weird building quirks that not many are aware of. It would also be a delight to meet and get to know you all individually. Catch me at the church on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Sundays to set up a time!

Following Gini's service, the AUC community of faith will host a reception being organized by Margaret W. and Karen. Please let Margaret know if you can provide sandwiches, squares, or fruit or vegetable trays. Help setting up, serving, and cleaning up would be appreciated. Thanks in advance to those able to help out.

Carman United Church is holding a special service to celebrate the UCC Centennial Anniversary on Sunday, September 14, at 10:30 AM. Members of our faith community are welcome to attend. (Note: There will be a worship service at Agassiz United this Sunday and at the usual time.)
