The Wesley Centre Concerts Patrons Scheme

How you can support music-making at the 'Wigmore Hall of the North'

Thirty years ago, Olive Dobson, a lifelong Methodist, made a substantial bequest to the Wesley chapel so as to encourage music-making there. The decision was taken to buy a concert grand piano, and Wesley Centre has been presenting high-quality lunchtime and evening recitals ever since.

We have built up an informed and appreciative audience that, together with the excellent acoustic and piano, has attracted many world-class performers to Harrogate. However, with most of the income coming from ticket sales, and prices kept as low as possible, the series is financially vulnerable.

Our Patrons Scheme is there to provide some financial stability and we'd encourage you to join. As a Patron you can donate as much as you wish, with the reward being the satisfaction of knowing you are supporting music excellence in Harrogate.

The scheme has proved a lifeline and today there are more than thirty Patrons, who, together with a regular grant from the Liz & Terry Bramall Foundation, contribute around 30% of our income, helping to secure the future of the concerts.

With the generous help of Patrons we can continue to be ambitious in the planning of each season, paying the artists a reasonable fee while keeping ticket prices accessible.

Please join the scheme and make a real difference.
