

MOR030 Collections / Designer Series 01

Knit Chair | MOR033

Debuted in 1951, Ib Kofod-Larsen's iconic Knitting Chair embodies the essence of mid-century modern design. Its harmonious proportions and exceptional craftsmanship render it a timeless choice for contemporary interiors.

The chair's thoughtful design is underscored by its playful nuances, notably the elbow cut-outs that facilitate comfort during leisure activities. The low-profile silhouette and expansive seat invite relaxation and intimacy.

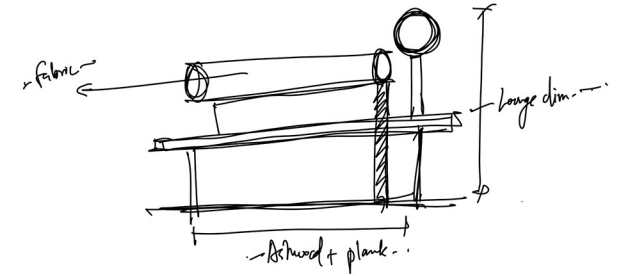

Typically constructed from premium woods like teak, the Knitting Chair showcases masterful craftsmanship through its sleek finishes and organic forms. Upholstery options, often featuring luxurious fabrics or leathers, enhance the chair's aesthetic appeal and comfort.

As a testament to mid-century modern design, the Knitting Chair seamlessly integrates functionality, comfort, and style, making it a coveted addition to any interior space.

Cilyo Chairs | MOR033

With their sleek wooden frame and plush gray upholstery, the Cilyo Chairs exude sophistication while inviting you to sink in and relax.

The chair features a balanced composition, with cylindrical armrests and a rounded backrest that create a harmonious visual rhythm.

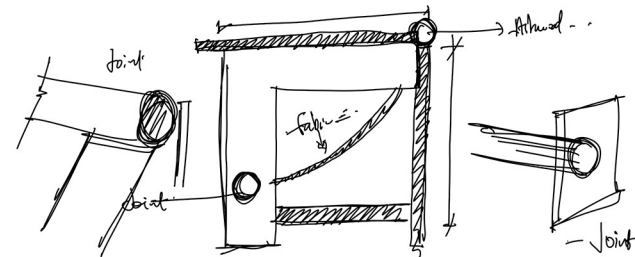

The wide seat provides ample space, allowing users to find their ideal sitting position for relaxation, while the thoughtful placement of the armrests ensures ergonomic support.

With Ashwood in walnut stain, the chair's frame reflects a robust yet refined aesthetic, emphasizing the natural beauty of the wood grain.

The seat and armrests are upholstered in a soft, light gray fabric, providing a tactile contrast to the solid wooden elements

Timber Sling | MOR034

The chair design exemplifies Studio Haos's design philosophy, which prioritizes the creation of functional art pieces that seamlessly integrate aesthetic appeal and comfort, yielding a modern yet timeless aesthetic. Characterized by a striking architectural design language, the chair features clean lines, geometric forms, and a boxy, angular silhouette that exudes stability and solidity.

The thoughtful incorporation of canvas upholstery, available in either linen or velvet, introduces a tactile contrast to the wooden frame, adding depth and visual interest to the design.

The rich, dark brown and walnut stains employed on the wooden frame serve to enhance the natural grain of the wood, imparting a refined and sophisticated aesthetic to the overall design.

Tom's Hug | MOR033

Drawing from Tom Dixon's Fat Chair, this design aims to "hug" the body, facilitating multiple sitting positions.

The intention is to create a chair that is not only comfortable but also adaptable to the user's movements, encouraging a more relaxed and informal seating experience.

The chair exhibits extreme simplicity in its components, exemplifying the principle of "form follows function." The back support is ingeniously redesigned into an inverted U-shape.

This form seamlessly integrates the backrest and the seat, creating a fluid line that flows from one component to another.

Blue Lounge | MOR033

Comprising minimalist mass elements, the Jia Lounge Chair by Atelier de Troupe, is a masterful exemplar of minimalist sophistication, expertly balancing restraint with refinement. emphasizes clean lines, geometric forms, and a modern aesthetic, yielding a visually striking presence.

The chair's structure is crafted from solid ashwood, a material renowned for its durability and versatility, and is finished with a vibrant bright blue stain that injects a pop of color and energizes the surrounding space.

The cushions, upholstered in a sumptuous soft beige leather, introduce a tactile contrast to the wooden frame, while their subtle hue expertly complements the blue stain, creating a rich and elegant visual dialogue.

The juxtaposition of the structured wood and plush cushions achieves a harmonious balance of comfort and style, as the chair's ergonomic design provides optimal support and relaxation, while its sleek silhouette and refined materials ensure a sophisticated aesthetic presence.

make our room