Event Sponsorship Opportunity

The world famous Besses Boys' Band are delighted to present a joint concert with The Band of the Grenadier Guards of His Majesty's Household Division.

The concert has been organized as a community engagement project and will take place in Bury Parish Church on Saturday 25th March 2023.

Besses Boys' Band have a strong community ethos and encourage young people to learn musical instruments to develop talent and performance skills. We have developed some of the country's finest musicians and amassed concert and competition success throughout Great Britain, Europe and Australia.

The Regimental Band of the Grenadier Guards are one of the oldest and most famous military bands in the world. They have a vast and illustrious history dating back over 300 years and we are delighted to be perform together, for our community, at what will be a fantastic event.

In recognition of this prestigious concert, a souvenir programme will be created to serve as a memento and we hope that you can support us by featuring your company as an advertisement. The programmes will be distributed to a 400 seat capacity audience which will provide great exposure for your business. Costs are detailed below and we can arrange for any artwork you may require on request.
