

Annual Report: Beyond Addiction – All Women’s Treatment Facility

Overview

Beyond Addiction is a dedicated treatment facility providing essential services to women struggling with addiction. Our mission is to empower women to regain control of their lives through comprehensive, gender-specific care in a safe and supportive environment. This report outlines the treatment services provided during the past year, showcasing our progress, demographics, and funding sources.

Client Statistics

This year, we had the honor of treating 201 women at Beyond Addiction. Of these, 186 women successfully completed their episode of treatment, achieving positive outcomes in their recovery journeys. Our facility is committed to providing effective, trauma-informed care that addresses the unique needs of women battling addiction.

Demographics of Women Treated

The following demographic breakdown outlines the diversity of the women we served during the year. This data highlights our commitment to serving a wide range of communities, ensuring access to care for all women in need.

Ethnicity Breakdown

The women we treated represented various ethnic backgrounds, as shown in the pie chart below:

- 74% White
 - 13% Black
 - 10% Hispanic
 - 3% Asian
-

Geographic Distribution

Our facility served women from various counties in Pennsylvania, with a significant portion residing in Lackawanna County. The geographic breakdown is as follows:

- 78% from Lackawanna County
 - 22% from other counties in Pennsylvania
-

Treatment Funding Breakdown

Beyond Addiction primarily relies on external funding to continue providing treatment services to women in need. This year, the breakdown of treatment funding is as follows:

- 88% CCBH (County County Behavioral Health) funding
 - 22% County funding
-

All Women Treated in Pennsylvania

All treatment services for women were provided within the state of Pennsylvania, ensuring that our clients had access to high-quality, locally available care. Our commitment to serving women within the state is essential to addressing the unique social, cultural, and economic factors that impact addiction in this region.

Ownership Report

Owners include Stan Blondek, MD, Richard Para, Charles Gallat, and James DuBell

Key managing members include Sara Swepston, PhD, MHA

Conclusion

We are proud to report that Beyond Addiction continues to make a meaningful impact on the lives of women across Pennsylvania. This year, we treated 201 women, with 186 completing their treatment successfully. With a diverse client base and strong community funding support, Beyond Addiction remains dedicated to helping women achieve lasting recovery and a brighter future.

We look forward to continuing this important work in the coming year, expanding access to care, and helping more women overcome the challenges of addiction.