At Daffodil Preparatory School, we believe that every child should be given the opportunity to develop to the highest standard academically, with good morals, social skills and cultural awareness to become a well-rounded individual. Through our Vision, Ethos and Aims, at Daffodil Preparatory School we provide this opportunity for our children and are pleased to do so within our school environment.

We anticipate all applicants to give their commitment, respect and wholehearted support to uphold and maintain our school ethos and values. In line with our values, we do not tolerate extreme religious or political views in any capacity. This includes any views which are prohibited under the law as well as those views that contravene our ethos and stance on equality, tolerance and respect for all, regardless of race, gender, faith (or none) or sexual orientation or gender preference.

1 AVAILABILITY OF THE POLICY (REG 33(B))

This policy is available to all parents and carers:

- On the school website: www.daffodilprepschool.org.uk
- In printed form upon request from the school office

2 INTRODUCTION

This privacy notice explains how Daffodil Preparatory School collects, uses, and protects personal information about you during the recruitment and selection process, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Following Brexit, Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), was retained in UK law and is now known as the UK GDPR. The UK GDPR works alongside the amended Data Protection Act 2018, which sets out provisions relating to the processing of personal data, the powers of the Information Commissioner, and sanctions and enforcement. The GDPR as it continues to apply in the EU is referred to as the EU GDPR.

This privacy notice applies specifically to job applicants. If you are successful in your application, please refer to the school's Privacy Notice for Staff, which provides further details about how personal data is collected, used, and stored during employment.

3 WHO COLLECTS THIS INFORMATION

Daffodil Preparatory School is a “data controller.” This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you.

Under data protection legislation we are required to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services and we may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other policies mentioned within this privacy notice. This will assist you with understanding how we process your information and the procedures we take to protect your personal data.

4 DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our data protection policy.

5 CATEGORIES OF INFORMATION WE COLLECT, PROCESS, HOLD AND SHARE

We may collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you up to the shortlisting stage of the recruitment process: -

Personal information and contact details such as name, title, addresses, date of birth, marital status, phone numbers and personal email addresses;

Emergency contact information such as names, relationship, phone numbers and email addresses;

Information collected during the recruitment process that we retain during your employment including proof of right to work in the UK, information entered on the application form, CV, qualifications;

Details of your employment history including job titles, salary and working hours;

Information regarding your criminal record as required by law to enable you to work with children;

Details of your referees and references;

Details collected through any pre-employment checks including online searches for data;

Your racial or ethnic origin, sex, and sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs.

We may also collect information after the shortlisting and interview stage to make a final decision on where to recruit, including criminal record information, references, information regarding qualifications. We may also ask about details of any conduct, grievance or performance issues, appraisals, time, and attendance from references provided by you.

6 HOW WE COLLECT THIS INFORMATION

We may collect this information from you, your referees, your education provider, by searching online resources, from relevant professional bodies the Home Office and from the DBS.

7 HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to take steps to enter a contract with you;
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation (such as health and safety legislation, under statutory codes of practice and employment protection legislation);
- Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes;
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests, rights and freedoms do not override those interests.
- Where you have provided your consent for us to process your personal data.

Generally, the purpose of us collecting your data is to enable us to facilitate safe recruitment and determine suitability for the role. We also collect data to carry out equal opportunities monitoring and to ensure appropriate access arrangements are put in place if required.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to take the steps to enter a contract with you, or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose.

8 HOW WE USE PARTICULARLY SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Sensitive personal information (as defined under the UK GDPR as “special category data”) requires higher levels of protection and further justification for collecting, storing, and using this type of personal information. We may process this data in the following circumstances:

- In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent;

- Where we need to carry out our legal obligations in line with our data protection policy;
- Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring (or in relation to our pension scheme);
- Where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is necessary to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent.

9 CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where it is necessary to carry out our legal obligations. We will only collect information about criminal convictions if it is appropriate given the nature of the role and where we are legally able to do so.

Where appropriate we will collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of working for us.

10 SHARING DATA

We may need to share your data with third parties, including third party service providers where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

These include the following:

Academic or regulatory bodies to validate qualifications/experience (for example the teaching agency);

- Referees;
- Other schools;
- DBS; and
- Recruitment and supply agencies.
- Our Local Authority to meet our legal obligations for sharing data with it;

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as HR consultants and professional advisers. Usually, information will be anonymised, but this may not always be possible. The recipients of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information with our regulators or as required to comply with the law.

11 RETENTION PERIODS

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, the school only retains personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes they collected it for, as required to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting obligations, or as necessary to resolve disputes.

Once we have finished recruitment for the role you applied for, we will then store your information in accordance with our Retention Policy. This can be found on our website.

12 SECURITY

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e., against it being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way). In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. Details of these measures are available in our Information Security Policy.

You can find further details of our security procedures within our Data Breach policy and our Information Security policy, which can be found on our website.

13 YOUR RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE AND RESTRICTION

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

Under certain circumstances by law, you have the right to:

- Access your personal information (commonly known as a “subject access request”). This allows you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check we are lawfully processing it. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information. However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.
- Correction of the personal information we hold about you. This enables you to have any inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Erasure of your personal information. You can ask us to delete or remove personal data if there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.
- Restriction of processing your personal information. You can ask us to suspend processing personal information about you in certain circumstances, for example, if you want us to establish its accuracy before processing it.
- To object to processing in certain circumstances (for example for direct marketing purposes).
- To transfer your personal information to another party.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Miss S Ali in writing.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights).

14 RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing, and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact Miss S Ali. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

15 HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

We hope that Miss S Ali can resolve any query you raise about our use of your information in the first instance.

We have appointed a data protection officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection and this privacy notice.

If you have any questions about how we handle your personal information which cannot be resolved by Miss S Ali, then you can contact the DPO on the details below: -
