Welcoming Note

We would like to welcome you to The Talaton Inn. We are proud to serve your community, your friends and families, visitors from near and far. Come in, relax, unwind and enjoy our hospitality! Do not hesitate to ask our friendly staff for recommendations for anything you might need. We are here to make your visit memorable. Should you have any comments, good or bad, we would be happy to hear about them.

Best wishes, Angie and John

PS: Say hello to Archie, our African Grey Parrot. Don't put your fingers in the cage, unless you are familiar with him and please do not feed him, as there are certain foods that are toxic to parrots.

The Talaton Inn, located in the heart of the ancient village of Talaton in East Devon, is a well-established public house with a history dating back to the 16th century. It's the only pub in the village and is known for its traditional village atmosphere and popular food offerings. The Inn has been a part of the community for centuries, and has served as a hub for local events and gatherings. Talaton was mentioned in the Domesday book 1086.
