WHO WE ARE

MIT was founded to address the need for premium agricultural exports from Vietnam. As a manufacturer of frozen fruits and vegetables, we have established direct relationships with numerous farmers across the country, ensuring the highest quality produce.

From our modest beginnings 35 years ago with just one jackfruit, MIT has grown into a global supplier.

Today, our fruits are distributed across North America, Europe, and Asia, showcasing our commitment to excellence and innovation.

Recognized as one of the largest exporter of jackfruit in Vietnam, MIT's young jackfruit has become a favored protein substitute and dietary staple among vegetarians worldwide. Our expertise extends beyond jackfruits to include fruit purees and a diverse range of vegetables.

In addition to our jackfruit exports, MIT is a leading exporter of avocado, taro, sweet potato, and various other vegetables, further enhancing our reputation for delivering premium agricultural products to international markets.
