PIONEER PARK NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH REBOOT

28 May 2024 @6p

It's been a while,
We're back & ready to reconnect

Our first Neighborhood watch meeting this year will be on ZOOM

Tuesday May 28st at 6pm

2024

We have been fortunate enough to have someone represent each street in our track, to follow-up on announcements and updates to keep our little community informed & connected resulting in a lot of community involvement and therefore, safer environments; but our work is not done. There have been transitions due to health and relocations, and there are a few concerning things brewing in the neighborhood.

Work with us to build a stronger community.

Volunteers Needed

There are at least two openings for Block/Street Captains 2024.

Thank you for the bluebirds

One of the earliest memories of settling into our home, were the beautiful bluebirds in our yard. I didn't know Web had been building and monitoring nests in the park for decades.

After over 30 years, Web passed this 'baton' to continue this work.

Web has organized, strategized and did whatever he could to keep our little community informed & connected kept for as long as I've been here. Although he is stepping aside as primary organizer, we are very glad he will continue as Underhill's Block Captain.

?? Summer Kick-Off ??

Jason may have information regarding a
City-Sponsored neighborhood party to share with us.
Come to the meeting for details

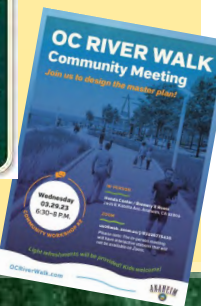

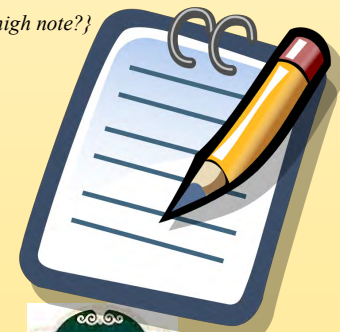

Meeting Agenda

What should we discuss? (suggestions)

- Meet your Captains
- Meet our APD Officers
- What do Captains do? (What should Captains do?)
- Leadership? Committee(s)?
- Neighborhood Watch Sign Replacements
- When to have our IRL Neighborhood Watch Meeting
- City Sponsored Summer Kick-Off Party
- Local Resources &/or Events
- Top 2 Major Neighborhood Concerns
- Top 10 Best Things about our little neighborhood.

{End on a high note?}

notes & comments

We keep each other informed of lost pets, crime in our tract, local measures such as storm drain meetings, & park updates
