

vocab

distant: far away, not close outskirts: the outer area of a town or city rumored: information spread without confirmation neglected: not given proper care or attention towering: very tall, reaching a great height overgrown: covered with plants that have grown too much pleading: begging or asking earnestly

