

BLACKPOOL WHOLESALE BALLOONS TERMS OF SALE

(1) Introduction

Please read our terms of sale carefully. Before you proceed with placing an order for any products from our website, it is important that you explicitly agree to the terms of sale. These terms outline the various conditions and provisions that govern the purchase and delivery of our products. By agreeing to these terms, you are acknowledging your understanding and acceptance of the rights and obligations that come with your purchase. It is crucial to carefully review the terms before proceeding with your order to ensure a smooth transaction and a satisfactory experience. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding the terms of sale, please do not hesitate to contact our customer support team who will be more than happy to assist you.

(2) Interpretation

In these terms of sale, "we" means Blackpool Wholesale Balloons (and "us" and "our" will be construed accordingly); and "you" means our customer or potential customer for products (and "your" will be construed accordingly)

(3) Order Process

Products advertised on our website are a "invitation to treat," and orders placed by you are an offer to enter into a contract. Until we accept your order in line with the process outlined below, no contract will be binding on the part of either of us.

In order to enter into a contract to purchase products from us, you will need to take the following steps: you must be business customer, you must add the products you wish to purchase to your shopping cart, and then proceed to the checkout and you must select your preferred method of delivery and confirm your order and your consent to these terms of sale.

You will receive by email an order confirmation showing the items you have requested. We will then check we are able to supply the goods - if we are not able to supply any items, we will contact you as soon as possible to offer a alternative or cancel part or the entire order. We will then despatch the goods.

(4) Payments and Goods

We provide product quotes on our website. With so many things available, there's always a chance that some of the prices shown on the website are incorrect We will get in touch with you as soon as we can after your order is placed if this is the case, and we reserve the right to ask you to cover any price difference. You have the option to cancel the item or order if you would prefer not to pay the updated price.

We are V.A.T exempt, so the prices you see are the prices you pay.

We accept Bacs payment.

(5) Delivery Policy

The items will be delivered to the address you specified when placing your order, according to our arrangements. We promise to make every effort to deliver the items by the delivery date specified in our order confirmation, if not earlier. We are unable to guarantee delivery by the specified date, though. Nonetheless, we promise that, barring unforeseen events, all product deliveries will be made within ten days of the date of our order confirmation and the receipt of payment, whichever comes first.

(6) Statutory Rights

Your statutory rights (such as the right to a refund for any defective product we sell you) are unaffected by anything in these terms of sale.

(7) Refunds

Once an item has been paid for it is too late to cancel an order

(8) Returns

Returns are not possible, unless faulty or the wrong item was despatched.

(9) Business-to-business

Although we operate as a wholesale business, you do not require a trade account to buy from us. However, it is important to note that our products are exclusively available for business customers. Customers with trade accounts enjoy the privilege of purchasing most items at a discounted price.

(10) Trade Account

A trade account is not mandatory.

To qualify for a trade account, you must operate a business, which includes self-employment.

To pay our discounted prices, you must place a one-off minimum order of £70 (before delivery). Thereafter, you can order as little as you like and continue to pay the trade account prices.

When creating a trade account, you must choose a username which you will require to provide with every trade account order.

(11) Delivery

To qualify for free delivery you will need to spend a minimum of £130. Next day delivery cannot be guaranteed. Please allow up to 10 days. However generally items will arrive no later than three working days.

If you wish to have your items delivered to Scotland, Northern Island or Isle of Wight, you will need to contact us.

(12) Minimum Order

There is no minimum order..
