

making forests investable for every portfolio

CANVENA's Timber Token provides innovative blockchain-based access to income-generating forestry assets. Supported by Miro Forestry's fast-growing plantations, the token enhances portfolio diversification. It offers dividend-like income through carbon credit sales, focusing on capital preservation, high risk-adjusted returns, and ESG impact. By reducing barriers to institutional-grade biological assets, it ensures security, liquidity, transparency, and long-term value growth under Swiss regulation.
