OBBOOSITE OPPOSITE PLAY

Rimsha Iqbal is a visual artist currently based in Lahore Pakistan. She completed her BFA in visual arts with distinction from the Beaconhouse National University, Lahore in 2021.

Her last work revolved around streets of Lahore where she grew up and admired the hustle bustle of life. The interesting colors, overlapped constructions and sounds of vehicles also people made her do a verity of image play. Taking it further she painted with those juxtapose images coming up with an entirely new visuals.
