

Satrio Nindyo Istiko

Profile: I am a public health social scientist, with a strong interest in addressing health inequalities linked to race, gender and sexuality, particularly among ethnic minoritised, migrant, and queer communities. I primarily use qualitative methodologies through participatory and creative methods, and draw interdisciplinary knowledge from sociology, public health and migration studies.

Address: Flat 112, Empire House, 1 Balme Street, Bradford, BD1 4 AL, United Kingdom
