NEEDS

Welcome to

At Wrappify India, we believe every corporate interaction is an opportunity to reinforce identity, build meaningful relationships, and create lasting impact. We bring a strategic and design-driven approach to corporate gifting, ensuring every product reflects the brand's values, professionalism, and commitment to excellence.

Wrappify India is led by Shivam Aggarwal, a legal professional with strong experience in corporate compliance and business processes, and Kriti Jain, an engineering graduate with expertise in systems, operations, and design solutions. Together, their combined professional backgrounds enable Wrappify India to operate with meticulous precision, strong operational structure, and a deep understanding of corporate expectations.

This unique blend of analytical thinking and creative execution allows us to address a key challenge faced by organizations today — the need for reliable, high-quality, fully customized gifting solutions that align seamlessly with brand identity while delivering meaningful experiences. Our catalogue of services is designed to meet diverse corporate needs, including:

- Bespoke Onboarding Kits that create memorable first impressions
- Premium Corporate Gifts tailored for employee and client appreciation
- Branded Stationery that strengthens visual identity
- High-quality Drinkware & Apparel for a unified team presence
- Event-specific Gifting Solutions crafted with precision and branding consistency
- A dedicated line of Eco-friendly Products, enabling sustainable and responsible gifting

At Wrappify India, we combine thoughtful design, robust execution, and reliable service to ensure your brand is presented with the impact it deserves. Our goal is simple:

to elevate your corporate gifting into a strategic asset that strengthens relationships and builds brand equity.
