

The Role of the President & Vice-Chancellor

The President and Vice-Chancellor of the Juneteenth Intercontinental University serves as the chief executive officer, steering the institution's strategic vision and operational management. This role encompasses a broad range of responsibilities, including the formulation and implementation of academic policies, overseeing faculty and staff hiring, and ensuring adherence to educational standards and regulatory compliance. The President engages in fundraising efforts, building partnerships with alumni, businesses, and other educational institutions to enhance the university's resources and visibility.

The President and Vice-Chancellor of the Juneteenth Intercontinental University serves as the chief executive officer, steering the institution's strategic vision and operational management. This role encompasses a broad range of responsibilities, including the formulation and implementation of academic policies, overseeing faculty and staff hiring, and ensuring adherence to educational standards and regulatory compliance. The President engages in fundraising efforts, building partnerships with alumni, businesses, and other educational institutions to enhance the university's resources and visibility.

In addition to administrative duties, the President acts as a public representative of the university, advocating for its interests in various forums and fostering relationships with the community, government, and other stakeholders. This position also plays a critical role in promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion within the university, ensuring that the institution honors and incorporates the rich cultural heritage associated with Juneteenth.

The President is responsible for the university's financial health, managing budgets, and ensuring sustainable growth while maintaining academic excellence. Furthermore, they support and empower a collaborative environment within the academic community, encouraging innovation in teaching and research. Overall, the 7655, 20^e Avenue,

Montreal (QC) H2K 2K8

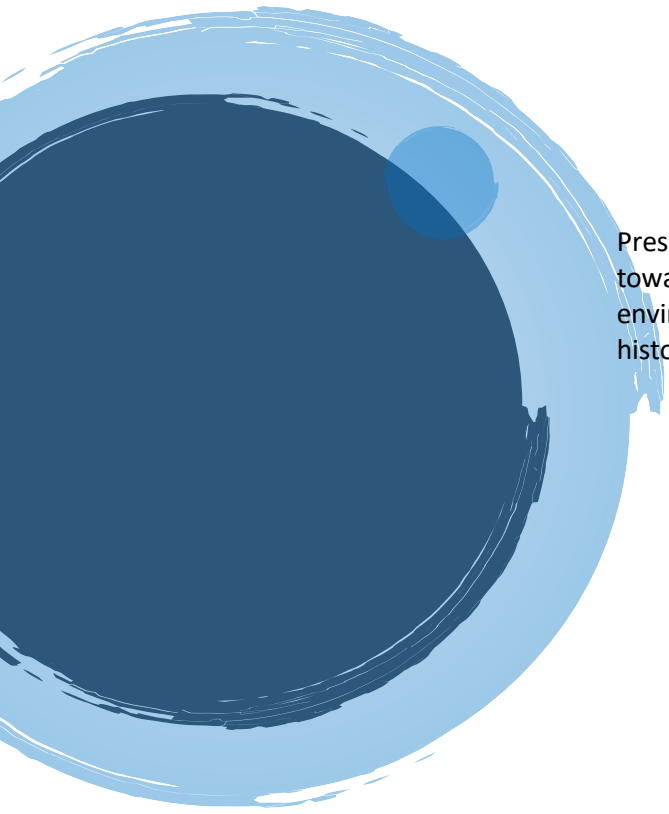

+1800-505-5550

president@uij.ca

<https://www.uij.ca>

President and Vice-Chancellor is pivotal in guiding the university toward achieving its mission and goals, fostering a vibrant learning environment that respects and celebrates diverse perspectives and histories.

