Call to Worship – (Palm Sunday) Psalm 31:9–16;

One: Be gracious to us, O Lord, for we are in need; our eyes grow weary with tears, and our strength is worn by sorrow.

All: Yet we lift our branches high and cry, Hosanna! Lord, save us!

One: Some days we feel forgotten and set aside, as if our lives slip through our fingers.

All: But our hope is in You, O Lord—our times are in Your hands.

One: We have been the scorn of neighbors and a whisper on the lips of many; fear and uncertainty press in on every side.

All: Still we will trust You: shine Your face upon us; in Your steadfast love, deliver us!

One: We remember the King who comes to us humble and riding on a donkey, the One who sets His face toward the cross.

All: We spread our cloaks of praise and shout, “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!”

One: Into Your hands, O God, we place our worries, our wounds, and our worship.

All: Be our rock and our redemption. Hosanna in the highest!

One: God of mercy, set Your face to shine upon us this day.

All: In Your unfailing love, gather us in, hold us fast, and lead us in peace. Amen.
