It was a beautiful day. The sun was out and shining bright and the birds were singing in sync. Kiran jumped right out of the bed before his mother could wake him for school. He was excited for another day

Brushing his teeth.

Eating his breakfast.

Running out the door with his backpack, Kiran shouted back,
"Bye mom!" as she told him to have a good day.

Kiran was excited. He knew Mrs. Ketner would be showing the class a new math problem. Math was Kiran's favorite subject; he was always good at it. He thought about how good he was at many things.

At school, Kiran rushed off to class. Flying by his friends in the hallway, he greeted Mrs. Ketner and sat at his desk with a pencil and paper ready to get started.
