Baidyanath®

We are Siddhayu, and we are reimagining
Ayurveda for today,
every day.

ABOUT US

Siddhayu, part of the 105-year-old Baidyanath Group is a leading Ayurvedic Research Center. Combining decades of experience with constant study, state-of-the-art R&D lab and cutting-edge technology. We create nothing short of the most potent and efficacious Ayurvedic medicines.

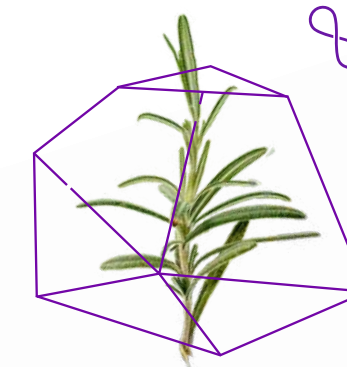

PRODUCTS & PROCESSES

Majority of our formulations are manufactured with Standardized Herbal Extracts instead of herbs. This meets the International standards of Good Manufacturing practices and sets the benchmark for the assessment of Herbal Formulations.

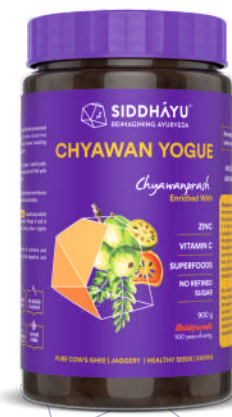

INTRODUCTION TO SIDDHAYU

At Siddhayu, we believe in this science, and, although it has been successfully practised successfully for over 5000 years, we don't believe it is immutable. We don't believe it's a recipe book set in stone, unchanged for millennia. We believe Ayurveda is powerful, built around the principle of balance. Between the mind and the body, and between us and the world that surrounds us. A science that has the power to discover, adapt and reinvent itself, almost prescient in its ability to go beyond the what and ask the why; to solve the lifestyle-induced health problems of today.
