Vocabulary Exercise 3

Upper Primary Advance English

Choose the word(s) closest in meaning to the underlined word(s).
Circle the correct word in the boxes.

Breaking news has just arrived. A (1) massive earthquake followed by a tsunami has struck Sumatra, Indonesia.

Reports confirm that the (2) fatality rate has climbed to over 10,000, with most victims losing their lives to the tsunami rather than the earthquake itself.

Still recovering from the (3) aftermath, residents describe scenes of total destruction—trees ripped from the ground and buildings flattened. (4) Debris is scattered across the streets, while thousands remain homeless and in need of urgent help. It will take months, perhaps even years, for the nation to rebuild after this (5) devastation. Medical, rescue, and relief teams continue to work tirelessly to aid the survivors and restore hope.

Editing for Spelling & Grammer Exercise 1

Upper Primary Advance English

Correct each underlined word for Spelling & Grammer. Write the answers below. The first one has been done for you.

Riley and his classmate, Max, were paired for a school project. Their task was to build a volcano model that could actually erupt. This was (1) the important assignment for the school term as the winning entry will also get to participate in the Scitech Stem Competition. The boys (2) aranged to meet on Saturday morning at Riley's home.

When Max arrived, they first tried to (3) aksess the Internet so they could begin their research. They read about what caused volcanoes to erupt and what made them so powerful. Then, they tried to find out more about how other people might have (4) attempt making such a model before. Their goal was to find out what materials worked best and, more importantly, which techniques failed. Once all the (5) nasessary information was gathered, they started to design their model on paper. They drew various designs before finally (6) decision on one.

Later that day, Riley's mother offered to take them to the art shop nearby to get what they needed. As soon as they returned to Riley's house, both boys set to work (7) in the model volcano. The structure came together quite easily, but the (8) tuffest part was making it erupt. It took them (9) numeros times without ruining it. (10) At the time the project was completed, it was already night.

Though the project took an entire day, both Riley and Max were very happy at what they had achieved. Hopefully, they will be (11) celected for the competition at SciTech.
