IM CATHERINE KIA ORA

I'm a Kiwi who has found my way to Canberra. I'm a coffee drinker, and book lover. But most importantly I'm a wedding photographer!

Photography has been a big part of my life for the last 15 years - which feels like I'm aging myself a lot! I studied photography and graphic design at Uni, and was lucky enough to get to try most types of photography, I fell in love with wedding photography pretty quickly, and have stayed there ever since.

I truly do love weddings. They are such a special day for you, your family and friends. Its one of the biggest parties you'll ever throw - or the biggest secrets you'll keep if your looking to elope. There's nothing better than getting to whiteness you and the person you love vowing to do life together.

I consider myself a bit is a storyteller, which I think is such a gift. In another life I could have been a writer, or painter. But I'm so happy I get to tell stories with a camera in my hands. I love getting to know couples ahead of their wedding day, in fact its a big part of my booking process. I want to make sure we are a great fit, because not every photographer is for every couple. And if we don't get along, there's no point in me coming to your wedding.

It also means I feel like an old friend on your day, not just another vendor.

We'll be able to have a laugh and relax to get photos you love. I'll know what's most important to you on the day, and be sure to capture the moments that matter most to you - because that's different for every couple.

I love taking photos that feel like you. I know its not always the easiest thing, especially when you've never had professional photos done before. I use direction to help you know where to stand, and what to do with your hands, while also giving you prompts to get you moving and laughing during photos.

The result is photos that have your personality, with a bit of that magazine feel.

So! That's a bit about me, and how I work. I cant wait to hear all about you, and your plans for your day!

THESE ARE A FEW OF MY FAVOURITE THINGS

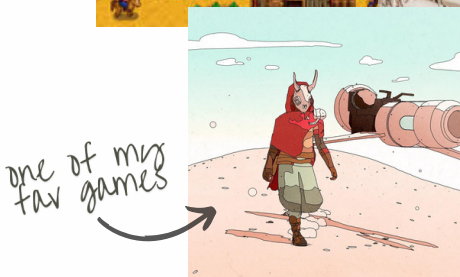

Rom-coms - especially from the 90s and early 00s. I love a good Julia Roberts, or Meg Ryan movie. I'll re-watch the same ones over and over, and never tire of them.

Books - I love both reading and collecting them. Our office is also technically our home library, stocked with over 500 books that I love. And I mean that. I cull them regularly, and if I don't like reading it then I give it away.

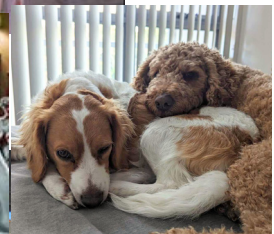

Coffee - I just love a good cup of coffee. We upgraded our coffee set up at home recently and it's made my mornings so good! I'm not super coffee-snobbish but instant should only be for decaf.

My puppies - I love our pups. They make me super happy most days. Some days they are the span of the devil and I want nothing to do with them. But most days they are beautiful puppies who can do no wrong!

Video games - I really love gaming - tending my silly little farm or running around climbing boulders. I play what are mostly called cozy Indie games, and they are relaxing and fun. Stardew Valley, Sable, and The Last Campfire are just a few that I love, and play on the regular. If you want to chat video games, I'm your girl!

CUSTOM WEDDING WEBSITES

Did you know I build wedding websites?

These are single page sites that are designed to help you share all the important information about your day with your guests. You can include as much, or as little info as you like - meaning you can keep your paper invitations simple and tidy. You can also collect digital RSVPs - simplifying the processes of knowing who can make it on the day.

You can add your own images, and pick fonts and colours to match your invitations. Its a truly personalized experience.

You can learn more about these websites, and get your hands on one -
