

JESUS,
THE GREAT SALVATION

HEBREWS 1 & 2

KEY VERSE 2:1

"We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away."

I. JESUS IS SUPERIOR TO PROPHETS AND ANGELS (1:1-14)

(1:1)

"In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways..."

(1:2)

"...but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe."

(John 14:9)

“Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?”

(John 1:3)

"Through him, all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made."

(1:3)

"The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven."

(1:4)

"So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs."

“Then neither do I condemn you. Go now and leave your life of sin.”

(John 4:13-14)

“Jesus answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life”

II. JESUS, THE GREAT SALVATION

(2:1-18)

(2:1)

"We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away."

(Deuteronomy 6:5)

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your strength.”

(Exodus 34:14)

“Do not worship any other god, for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.”

(2:1)

"We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away."

(2:2-3a)

"For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment, how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation?"

(2:3b-4)

“This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him. God also testified to it by signs, wonders and various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.”

(Mark 1:15)

“The time has come. The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”

(2:6-8a)

"But there is a place where someone has testified: "What is mankind that you are mindful of them, a son of man that you care for him? You made them a little lower than the angels; you crowned them with glory and honor and put everything under their feet."

(2:10)

"In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered."

(2:11)

“Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.”

(2:14-15)

“Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.”

(2:17-18)

"For this reason he had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted."

(1 Timothy 1:15)

“Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst.”

(2:6)

“What is mankind that you are mindful of them, a son of man that you care for him?”
