ROBERT RICHARDSON : THE WHITE DEVIL

— IN POST PRODUCTION —

This film began in the most unlikely way. Jana Hojdoová, a former cinematography student at Prague's FAMU, decided to approach Robert Richardson for her master's degree project. His body of work, spanning decades of cinematic history, had inspired Jana like nothing else in the world. She wrote him an email — and to her surprise, he replied. What started as a student exercise soon evolved into an extraordinary creative partnership and a deep personal friendship. Richardson opened up to Jana in a way he never had before, granting her access to hundreds of hours of his private video archives and allowing her into his personal and professional life. Jana began shaping a documentary portrait from within. She traveled with Richardson around the world, attended the Academy Awards, and witnessed major film productions alongside directors such as Quentin Tarantino, Oliver Stone or Martin Scorsese. The result is not only a film about one of the greatest cinematographers of our time, but also a powerful, inspiring story about courage, passion, and belief. A reminder that where you come from matters less than the drive to follow your vision — and that even the highest peaks can be reached.

MARIAS CALLAS - MONICA BELLUCCI : AN ENCOUNTER

An invaluable exploration of the life and legacy of iconic diva Maria Callas, portrayed by Monica Bellucci. Through intimate memoirs, letters, and rare footage, we journey into Calla's world – from her modest beginnings in New York City to her triumphs on the global stage.

This film captures two distinct eras: the period when Callas reached heights of fame, and today, when her voice continues to resonate. At its heart, this is a dialogue between two women – Callas and Bellucci – who, despite their differing backgrounds, share a profound dedication to their art.

This encounter bridges past and present, revealing the human spirit behind the legend and honoring an artist who transformed her pain into timeless beauty.
