John Von Kubrick, an eccentric director, goes off the rails with all the footage of his freshly shot feature. His two producers find themselves in a serious predicament, having borrowed money from the Japanese mafia to finance the project. Now, they are obligated to track down the director and the film at all costs. It's a matter of life or death

Driven by deep concern for their fragile daughter, her parents subject her boyfriend to shockingly intense and brutal tests, pushing the boundaries of his love to its absolute limits.

A dark, moody movie poster for "Mother Monster". The scene is set in a dimly lit room. In the foreground, a woman's face is partially visible, looking down with a somber expression. Her hair is dark and messy. In the background, a man's face is visible, looking towards the camera with a neutral expression. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and shadows. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and intense.

Production

Thomas Bruxelle

Horror drama rooted in the everyday life of a middle class family where fear arises from isolation, self-doubt, and psychological pain, than from the monster.

The result is an emotional claustrophobic tale, where paranoia, silent violence, and depression take on tangible and visceral forms.

Sara and Adam, and their two-year-old daughter, arrived in Belgium illegally, and are now hoping to finally make their way on to England.

Crammed together with other hopefuls in the back of a van, fear begins to prevail over hope.

Redouane has been a policeman for 20 years.

Every night, he and his team hunt down people smugglers throughout the country's busy motorway network. That night, when he and his partner try to force a van suspected of transporting migrants to stop, everything changes.

If you wish for something hard enough, the whole Universe will work in your favor, right?

Stela, educated but unable to hold down a job, fell in love with a famous Balkan musician after seeing him on TV. This passion transformed into obsession is taking over her life and now she must meet him. One of the musician's supposed mistresses, Vera, a starlet-musician, promises to help Stela meet her idol and, even more, to take her away from her poverty-stricken rural life. Their two worlds collide when Vera brings Stela to Bucharest, where she runs a company that sells sexual products and lubricants.

Director

Yannis Dimolitsas

Starring

Monica Bellucci

An invaluable exploration of the life and legacy of iconic diva Maria Callas, portrayed by Monica Bellucci. Through intimate memoirs, letters, and rare footage, we journey into Calla's world – from her modest beginnings in New York City to her triumphs on the global stage.

This film captures two distinct eras: the period when Callas reached heights of fame, and today, when her voice continues to resonate. At its heart, this is a dialogue between two women – Callas and Bellucci – who, despite their differing backgrounds, share a profound dedication to their art.

This encounter bridges past and present, revealing the human spirit behind the legend and honoring an artist who transformed her pain into timeless beauty.
