

Euregio Chamber Music Competition 2025

International Chamber Music Competition

Regulations

Art.1 Dates and Venue

Euregio Klassika Aps announces the International Chamber Music Competition “Euregio Chamber Music Competition”, which will take place in Trento at the Fondazione Bruno Kessler, Via Santa Croce 77, from December 4 to 5, 2025.

Art.2 Purposes

The Competition is open to musicians from all over the world and aims to promote musical culture, encourage active participation of young musicians in order to develop artistic skills, create a meeting point between artists and the cultural system, foster cross-border cultural exchanges as a fundamental means of building bridges between cultures, and promote European integration while at the same time becoming an important vehicle for knowledge of the artistic heritage of the Euregio region.

Art.3 Sections and rounds

The Competition is divided into two sections:

Soloists Section

Instrumentalists with or without piano accompaniment. This section has a single category: from age 16 up to and including 32 years of age as of 5.12.2025.

Chamber Music Section, from Duo to Decet

Mixed groups with or without voice, with or without piano are admitted. Repertoire involving two or more pianos is not permitted. The section is reserved for ensembles whose average age does not exceed 32 years as of December 5, 2025.

The Competition will consist of two rounds: Preliminary Round (online) and Final Round (in person).

Preliminary Round – Soloists

Free-choice program of at least 10 minutes.

Transcriptions and/or simplifications are not allowed. Concertos for solo instrument with piano accompaniment are permitted.

Preliminary Round – Chamber Music

Free-choice program of at least 15 minutes.

The preliminary round will be held via video: candidates must submit a YouTube link of their performance along with the application form.

A maximum of 5 soloists and 5 chamber groups will be admitted to the live final round.

Admitted groups and soloists will receive a reimbursement of €50 for each member.

The list of finalists will be published by November 20 on Euregio Klassika's website and social media.

Finalists will also receive official notification by e-mail.

- Final Round – Soloists

Free-choice program of at least 20 minutes.

Transcriptions and/or simplifications are not allowed. Candidates may repeat one of the pieces performed in the preliminary round.

The finals, in concert form, will be open to the public and held at the venue indicated.

- Final Round – Chamber Music

Free-choice program of at least 20 minutes.

The finals, in concert form, will be open to the public and held at the venue indicated.

Art.4 Registration

Finalists must be present and register on the day and at the time set for the final round. Competitors are not required to perform their program from memory. Competitors may enter both sections.

Art.5 Jury

The Jury will consist of professionals from Italy and abroad. Jurors who have teaching relationships with candidates or are related to them must abstain from voting; such abstentions will be explicitly mentioned in the minutes. The Jury may decide not to award prizes if candidates do not meet the required standards. The Jury's decision is final and not subject to appeal.

Art.6 Rehearsal Schedule

Each group may request an acoustic rehearsal at the venue, provided the request is submitted by the application deadline. The detailed schedule will be published starting November 20, 2025, on:

www.euregioklassika.it and Euregio Klassika's Facebook and Instagram pages.

The rounds will be open to the public.

Art.7 Scoring and prizes

Il giudizio della commissione sarà espresso in centesimi secondo norme e modalità concordate dai commissari prima dell'apertura delle prove.

The Jury's evaluation will be expressed in hundredths according to rules agreed upon before the start of the rounds.
