

York Interfaith Group

Special Announcement: two additional events; Interfaith Week Programme to follow

Dear Members, friends and colleagues,

We have two additional events in October that were announced too late for our October newsletter, and those are the subject of this bulletin.

In addition, the full list of events for Interfaith Week has now been agreed, and the programme is being compiled. It will follow as an attachment to a separate email to you all. That means that you can print off a copy as your handy guide to take round over the week. We think you will appreciate having this in advance of our November newsletter, as people's diaries can get very full at this time of year.

Rory Allen, editor

We Are York event

This will take place from 12.00 til 2.00 on Saturday 18th October, in Parliament Street. It will be 'a multicultural celebration of solidarity, resilience and shared humanity'.

The organiser states: 'These gatherings are more than symbolic. They are a public stand against intimidation and racism, and a powerful reminder that York's strength lies in its diversity. As a city, we will not allow divisive practices to take root. We stand together united, proud, and committed to building a future where everyone belongs.'

Spooky Shabbat: 6.30 – 8.00 on 31st October at the Unitarian Chapel, hosted by the York Liberal Jewish Community

YLJC ARE HOSTING A SPOOKY FRIDAY NIGHT
SUPPER AND SERVICE!

DATE: 31 October

VENUE: Unitarian Chapel - St Saviourgate, York

TIME: 6.30pm- 8 pm

Rabbi Elishera will lead the informal service which will include:

singing traditional songs with a ghoulish twist,
telling spooky stories, sharing food and then...
crafting amulets!!

PLEASE BRING VEGGIE FOOD TO SHARE BUT DO NOT WORRY IF YOU CANNOT, WE WILL PROVIDE SOME FOOD!

Please email: socialaction@jewsinyork.org.uk for further enquiries

(We will be asking for small monetary donations towards the cost)

