

Aidan Newland

Saxophonist

Aidan Newland is an accomplished saxophonist with over a decade of experience, having started his musical journey as a teenager. While he specializes in jazz, he effortlessly crosses into a variety of genres, including pop, reggae, funk, soul, hip-hop, and dance music. His deep roots in jazz provide a solid foundation, allowing him to bring a unique, improvisational flair to each performance.

Aidan Newland brings his expertise and versatility to every performance by carefully tailoring a setlist to suit the unique vibe of each occasion. Whether it's a smooth jazz set for an elegant cocktail hour, upbeat pop and funk hits for a lively dance floor, or soulful classics for an intimate gathering, Aidan curates his music to match the atmosphere and energy of the celebration. His wide-ranging repertoire and ability to read the crowd ensure that every performance enhances the experience, leaving a lasting impression on guests.

In addition to his live performances, Aidan is a composer and recording artist. His debut EP, Home, showcases his dynamic range and genre-blending style. With each track, he crafts a musical narrative that is both deeply personal and reflective of his wide-ranging influences.
