

Free eBooks!

50 Days of Wisdom

A download invitation by:

MarkPaulMinistry.com

A Daily Measure of Biblical Truth!

Free eBooks!

50 Days of Wisdom

A download invitation by:

MarkPaulMinistry.com

A Daily Measure of Biblical Truth!

Free eBooks!

50 Days of Wisdom

A download invitation by:

MarkPaulMinistry.com

A Daily Measure of Biblical Truth!

Free eBooks!

50 Days of Wisdom

A download invitation by:

MarkPaulMinistry.com

A Daily Measure of Biblical Truth!

Day 3 (Sample)

Great News for the Man in the Box!

Imagine a little box, utterly closed in on all sides. That represents man's world. Inside the box, man exists in a natural world. Outside the box is the supernatural. Outside is eternity. Outside is God. Man bangs around inside his little cube; it has no windows, so he speculates about what is outside. He searches to know God, but it is impossible for him to escape, for by very definition, the natural cannot enter into the supernatural. The confinement of time and space prevents any escape into eternity and infinity. So, man is confined in his little cubicle, but there is something in him that longs to comprehend what is outside. And so he invents gods that he thinks exist, and all of these are part of man's fantasy, as he wishes so desperately to get out of his box. But he cannot. All of the religions in the world tell him he can. They say, "Just be a good person, and you will burst out of your little box and discover God. Just be sure that you fulfill these routines and rituals, and you will escape and meet God." But it is all a lie because man is confined by his very nature. And that is where Christianity enters the scene. Christianity acknowledges that man is unable to get out of his box, and Christianity says, "Good news!" God has invaded the box from the outside. God has entered in to tell us what is out there and to tell us how we too can dwell out there in His presence forever. Man couldn't get out, but God could get in. And that is exactly what God did. He gave us this revelation in Scripture, and He also gave us this revelation in human flesh, Jesus Christ. Repent and believe!

Day 3 (Sample)

Great News for the Man in the Box!

Imagine a little box, utterly closed in on all sides. That represents man's world. Inside the box, man exists in a natural world. Outside the box is the supernatural. Outside is eternity. Outside is God. Man bangs around inside his little cube; it has no windows, so he speculates about what is outside. He searches to know God, but it is impossible for him to escape, for by very definition, the natural cannot enter into the supernatural. The confinement of time and space prevents any escape into eternity and infinity. So, man is confined in his little cubicle, but there is something in him that longs to comprehend what is outside. And so he invents gods that he thinks exist, and all of these are part of man's fantasy, as he wishes so desperately to get out of his box. But he cannot. All of the religions in the world tell him he can. They say, "Just be a good person, and you will burst out of your little box and discover God. Just be sure that you fulfill these routines and rituals, and you will escape and meet God." But it is all a lie because man is confined by his very nature. And that is where Christianity enters the scene. Christianity acknowledges that man is unable to get out of his box, and Christianity says, "Good news!" God has invaded the box from the outside. God has entered in to tell us what is out there and to tell us how we too can dwell out there in His presence forever. Man couldn't get out, but God could get in. And that is exactly what God did. He gave us this revelation in Scripture, and He also gave us this revelation in human flesh, Jesus Christ. Repent and believe!

Day 3 (Sample)

Great News for the Man in the Box!

Imagine a little box, utterly closed in on all sides. That represents man's world. Inside the box, man exists in a natural world. Outside the box is the supernatural. Outside is eternity. Outside is God. Man bangs around inside his little cube; it has no windows, so he speculates about what is outside. He searches to know God, but it is impossible for him to escape, for by very definition, the natural cannot enter into the supernatural. The confinement of time and space prevents any escape into eternity and infinity. So, man is confined in his little cubicle, but there is something in him that longs to comprehend what is outside. And so he invents gods that he thinks exist, and all of these are part of man's fantasy, as he wishes so desperately to get out of his box. But he cannot. All of the religions in the world tell him he can. They say, "Just be a good person, and you will burst out of your little box and discover God. Just be sure that you fulfill these routines and rituals, and you will escape and meet God." But it is all a lie because man is confined by his very nature. And that is where Christianity enters the scene. Christianity acknowledges that man is unable to get out of his box, and Christianity says, "Good news!" God has invaded the box from the outside. God has entered in to tell us what is out there and to tell us how we too can dwell out there in His presence forever. Man couldn't get out, but God could get in. And that is exactly what God did. He gave us this revelation in Scripture, and He also gave us this revelation in human flesh, Jesus Christ. Repent and believe!

Day 3 (Sample)

Great News for the Man in the Box!

Imagine a little box, utterly closed in on all sides. That represents man's world. Inside the box, man exists in a natural world. Outside the box is the supernatural. Outside is eternity. Outside is God. Man bangs around inside his little cube; it has no windows, so he speculates about what is outside. He searches to know God, but it is impossible for him to escape, for by very definition, the natural cannot enter into the supernatural. The confinement of time and space prevents any escape into eternity and infinity. So, man is confined in his little cubicle, but there is something in him that longs to comprehend what is outside. And so he invents gods that he thinks exist, and all of these are part of man's fantasy, as he wishes so desperately to get out of his box. But he cannot. All of the religions in the world tell him he can. They say, "Just be a good person, and you will burst out of your little box and discover God. Just be sure that you fulfill these routines and rituals, and you will escape and meet God." But it is all a lie because man is confined by his very nature. And that is where Christianity enters the scene. Christianity acknowledges that man is unable to get out of his box, and Christianity says, "Good news!" God has invaded the box from the outside. God has entered in to tell us what is out there and to tell us how we too can dwell out there in His presence forever. Man couldn't get out, but God could get in. And that is exactly what God did. He gave us this revelation in Scripture, and He also gave us this revelation in human flesh, Jesus Christ. Repent and believe!