TECHNICAL INFORMATION

- Band Setup: Drums, Bass, Keyboards/Vocals, Guitar/lead vocals
- PA & Lighting: Give Me Moore can be fully self-contained, bringing their own high-quality PA system and lighting rig if required.
- Video Projection & Visuals: If the venue has video projection capabilities, we integrate video clips to supplement the music and enhance the live experience. For larger venues, we can also relay live camera footage to the screens.
- Additional Video Equipment: If required, we can bring our own video screens (75" HD screens). Should the venue be large enough and the budget allow, we can also install a large video wall at the back of the stage to create a fully immersive visual experience.
- Backline & Monitoring: Guitar and bass will use amplifiers for backline unless the venue is too small, in which case we will use front-of-house sound and stage monitors. The band uses a combination of in-ear monitors (IEMs) and stage monitors, all of which can be self-contained, utilise venue equipment, or a hybrid of both—whichever best suits the venue and house equipment.
- Festival & Large Outdoor Events: For festivals and large outdoor events where setup and soundcheck time is limited, we will control all stage sound and monitoring via IEMs and send direct outputs from each channel so the venue's sound operators can efficiently run front-of-house sound.
