

HT 101 Train the Trainer

SUMMARY REPORT

JUNE 2025

Overview:

In Spring 2025 DCBS continued the work originally funded through the OVC Improving Outcomes for Child and Youth Victims of Human Trafficking grant project, which ended in Sept. 2024, through implementation of the HT101 Train the Trainer Series, which was offered through four regional trainings for professionals throughout Kentucky positioned to provide future HT101 training to individuals in their field and awareness presentations to community members.

Location	Date	# of Attendees	# of Evaluations Completed
Lexington, KY	March 31, 2025	22	21
Bowling Green, KY	April 30, 2025	21	21
Prestonsburg, KY	June 11, 2025	21	18
Lexington, KY	June 25, 2025	15	15
TOTAL ATTENDEES		76	75

The HT101 training content for the Train the Trainer included an overview of human trafficking definitions and laws, impacted populations, familial trafficking, intersections with substance misuse, screening for trafficking, national and local human trafficking data, Kentucky state human trafficking laws, prevention, and intervention. Attendees were provided guidance as trainers which included additional resources, information on training v/s awareness, fielding questions, updating data, adverse childhood experiences, and multi-disciplinary collaboration. Training exercises were included to build the skills of attendees as trainers on human trafficking and a Trainer Manual was provided to each attendee with printed materials and e-versions of resources for use in future trainings.

Training Evaluation Feedback:

Training Team:

Rashmi Adi-Brown, CHES Solutions Group
Marissa Castellanos, The Coterie
Tamar Israel, Catholic Charities of Louisville

Danielle Khoury, DCBS
Amy Nace-DeGonda, Catholic Charities of Louisville
Heidi Reyes, Catholic Charities of Louisville

The Coterie
Explore|Strategize|Advocate

CHES
SOLUTIONS GROUP

TEAM KENTUCKY
CABINET FOR HEALTH AND FAMILY SERVICES

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF LOUISVILLE, INC.
PROVIDING HELP. CREATING HOPE.

BAKHITA
EMPOWERMENT INITIATIVE
Empowering Women. Transforming Lives.