

Candid cock crush

I tried something new and drilled a hole in the floor under the rubber mat in front of the ticket office of a mobile ice skating rink. Then I lay down underneath and pushed my penis through the hole... It was pretty painful! Unfortunately, the quality isn't that great, which was due to the endoscope camera. Still awesome.

Unknown cock crush game 01

I built a kind of crush box on a platform to play my favorite game with girls: Blindfolded, crushing things and guessing what they are. What she didn't know was that there was a false floor underneath where my cock was. After she put on the mask, I removed the camouflage so that part of it could be seen. My cock is in a hollow so it's not so painful and she doesn't hear me moaning in pain, which would be too suspicious. Besides, I didn't want her to notice that there was something else there. I stretched the rubber band over it to keep the little thing in position and prevent her from squishing it on the sharp edge. Unfortunately, she always took her foot away just before I was ready to cum. It was still hot.

Candid worm crushes Karneval 01

Finally, another candid video, this time during Carnival. Unfortunately, I only had this one opportunity. It was pretty difficult this time; there were too many eyes everywhere, and it felt like everyone was staring at me. Nevertheless, I managed to get a few good videos with worms. The focus is on boots/ankle boots, but I also included a few sneakers.

Trainstation Sn4ils 11

New videos from the train station. The girls here are unknowingly crushing snails, and most of them don't even notice or don't care. At the end of this video, there's also a scene from the train, but unfortunately without Crush. Instead, she doesn't notice several snails crawling up her boots. Mixed shoes.

More new videos from the train station. The girls here are unknowingly crushing snails, some noticing, some not. A special video is the one with the Nike Air Force. The girl only noticed something after the third snail, but wasn't really interested. If a cleaning man hadn't come, she probably would have crushed more than four. Different types of shoes.

New videos from the train station. Because of the season only sneakers. Half video is devoted to the girl with the Adidas Sneakers, she did a great job and didn't leave much left by two of our little friends. One she worked into her profile and on the other she stepped on it again and again. She didn't notice anything.

Unknown cock crush game 02

A new episode of my favorite game: crushing things and guessing what it is. This time she steps on me with hunt rubber boots without knowing it. She thinks she's just crushing some things, but my best piece also had a benefit of it. Unfortunately, the rubber band was torn from the last video when she was already on it, so I had to come up with something quickly and only had this film that I could stretch over the hole. Doesn't look that great, but it worked. Unfortunately, she didn't let me come this time either. Still good scenes.

Unknown cock crush game 03

I built a new crush box and this time left the double floor above the hole. So I didn't need a rubber or something the like that which holds the cock in place and besides, I didn't want to have all this smear on me. This time I also used snails and worms. She gets me and the little creeping properly with these Demonia platforms without knowing what she is doing. She later noticed that there was some increase, but she couldn't get what it could be. Quite big video.

Cinema 02

NEW

I went to the cinema again with night vision cameras. I had some maggots and worms with me and found a girl wearing something like platform UGGs and put some maggots at her feet. She squashed a lot of them without realizing it. Once she slipped on them and felt around with her foot to see what it was. That didn't go down well with the maggots...

Crushing in Train 01

On the way to the train station, there were some girls on the train wearing nice shoes. I took the opportunity to let them squash a few maggots. Only the one in the Doc Martens noticed, but there were quite a few of them she crushed... boots and sneakers mixed together.

Out and about at the train station again. This time with my new friends – fat maggots. In this video, many maggots are squashed into mush, mostly unnoticed. Only one noticed and was quite disgusted. This new video series is among the best I've ever made! In this video, all the girls are wearing boots/ankle boots.

A total of six scenes featuring only boots, with the majority focusing on the completely oblivious girl in the black platform boots. One truly brilliant scene where she kills over ten maggots without even realizing it. She just keeps going. Luckily, she stood there long enough for more maggots to be thrown at her. One of my best clips so far.

Six scenes featuring only sneakers. The girls in this clip give it their all, with the cutie in the Nike Dunk crowning herself Crush Queen. It's unbelievable what she smashed. And it was like she was playing along, as if every time she held her soles up to the camera she was saying, "Look, am I doing well? Want more?" She was really keen to smash everything I threw at her. Almost a must-buy.
