

Crush Game 01

I played a game with a girl from the neighborhood: She had to guess what she was stepping on while blindfolded. If she guessed most things correctly, she won.

What she didn't know was that I had placed a lot of snails there, which she crushed into mud.

Running time 35 minutes, 1.9 GB, Adidas sneakers

Crush Game 02

I played the same game with a friend. She was blindfolded and had to guess what she was stepping on. With these sexy rubber boots she smashed everything, without knowing that there were other things in there besides cookies and so on.

Running time 47 minutes, 2.6 GB, Lemonjelly rubber boots

Crush Game 03

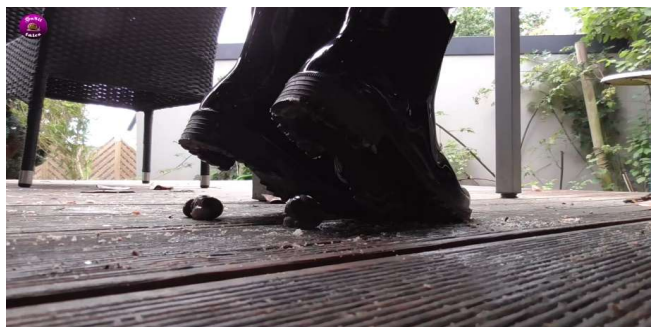

The next round of my favorite game with another friend. Same principle, blindfolded and stepping on things. She also had no idea what she had actually stepped on. On the hard floor and with these hard high heels, sometimes only a stain remained of the snails, she had flattened them so much. And she had fun doing it.

Running time 28 minutes, 1.55 GB in size, white platform high heels and gold wedge sandals

Crush Game 04

Part four is again with the girl from the neighborhood. This time she is wearing cute rubber boots. It didn't do the snails any good, they were mercilessly (and unsuspectingly) trampled on. Many snails who saw the soles of these shoes as the last thing in their lives.

Running time 38 minutes, 2.13 GB, black rubber boots

Crush Game 05

Again with a friend of mine, this time with sneakers. These have a pretty thick sole, no idea how she even noticed what she had done there. In any case, these shoes killed loads of snails.

Cinema Snails

I was at the cinema and wanted to see if I could get snails crushed without being noticed. It worked well, but I couldn't see where the snails were crawling. Some crawled up the woman's leg, others I was able to catch. The woman probably thought it was popcorn she was stepping on. I have no idea what happened, when the lights came on I was no longer there. I had to leave at some point because it was too dangerous for me. Filmed with a night vision camera.

Circus Snails

I went to the circus under the stands again. Unfortunately, it didn't work out as well as I would have liked. Girls who were sitting sometimes didn't move enough. I was also caught by the staff twice. I continued filming in the awning instead, where I was also seen. I then stopped the action. However, there were still some good, "crisp" scenes. Since it was summer, all the girls here were wearing sandals or sneakers.

Shopping Snails 01

I was shopping at the hardware store with a friend and attached two cameras under the cart. She was busy looking at flowers and so on and didn't pay any attention to the ground. Too bad for the snails that were lying there. They were then allowed to take a closer look at the sole of her platform DocMartens.

Shopping Snails 02

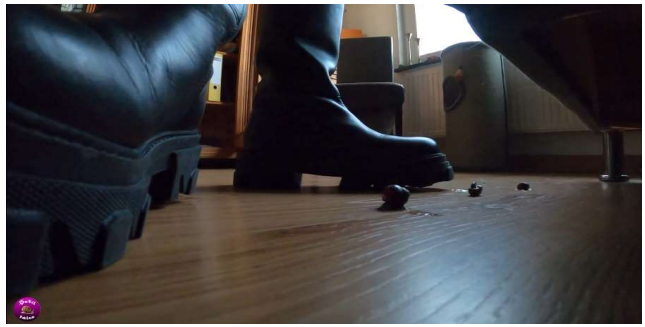

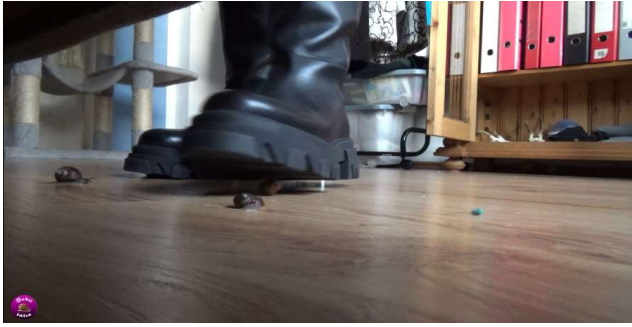

I was shopping with a friend again, this time in a fashion store. I had a GoPro tied to my leg and pulled up my pants to film, which is why my pants are sometimes in the picture. She didn't know I was filming her. At some point she noticed that I was throwing something to her to crush, but she thought it was grapes, for whatever reason. She is wearing sexy Copenhagen ankle boots
