

Crush Game 01

I played a game with a girl from the neighborhood: She had to guess what she was stepping on while blindfolded. If she guessed the most correctly, she won.

What she didn't know was that I had placed a lot of snails there, which she crushed into mud.

Crush Game 02

I played the same game with a friend. She was blindfolded and had to guess what she was stepping on. With these sexy rubber boots, she smashed everything, not knowing there were other things besides cookies and the like.

Crush Game 03

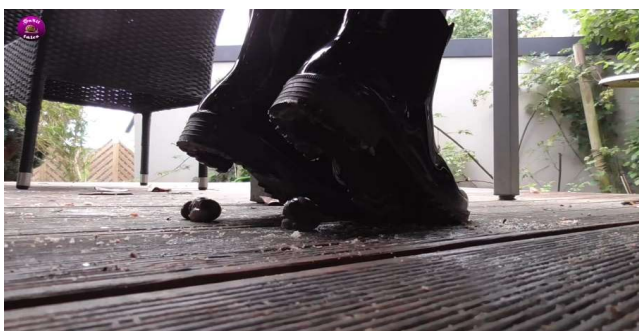

The next round of my favorite game with yet another friend. Same principle, blindfolded and stepping on things. She, too, had no idea what she was actually stepping on. On the hard floor and in those hard high heels, sometimes only a speck remained of the snails, she flattened them so hard. And she had fun doing it.

Running time: 28 minutes, 1.55 GB, white platform high heels and gold wedge sandals

Crush Game 04

Part four is again with the girl from the neighborhood. This time, she's wearing cute rubber ankle boots. It didn't do the snails any good; they were mercilessly (and unsuspectingly) crushed. Many snails saw the soles of these shoes for the last time in their lives.

Running time: 38 minutes, 2.13 GB, black rubber ankle boots

Crush Game 05

Again with a friend of mine, this time wearing sneakers. They have rather thick soles; I have no idea how she even noticed what she'd done there. In any case, these shoes killed tons of snails.

Running time: 61 minutes, 3.36 GB, white Buffalo sneakers

Cinema Snails

I was at the movies and wanted to see if I could sneak in and have snails crushed. It worked well, but I couldn't see where the snails were crawling. Some crawled up the woman's leg, while others I managed to catch. The woman probably thought it was popcorn she was stepping on. I have no idea what happened. When the lights came on, I was no longer there. I had to leave at one point because it was getting too dangerous. Filmed with a night vision camera.

Circus Snails

I went to the circus again under the grandstand. Unfortunately, it didn't work out as I would have hoped. Some of the girls who were seated didn't move enough. I was also caught by the staff twice. I continued filming in the awning instead, where I was also seen. I then stopped the stunt. However, there were still some good, "tight" scenes. Since it was summer, all the girls were wearing sandals or sneakers.

Shopping Snails 01

I was shopping at a hardware store with a friend and mounted two cameras underneath the cart. She was busy checking flowers and other things and didn't pay any attention to the ground. Too bad for the snails lying there. They got a closer look at the soles of her platform Doc Martens.

Shopping Snails 02

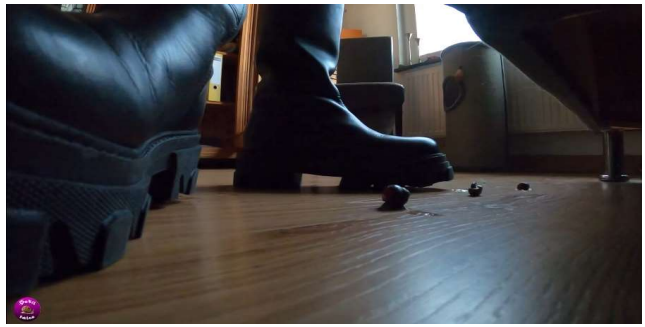

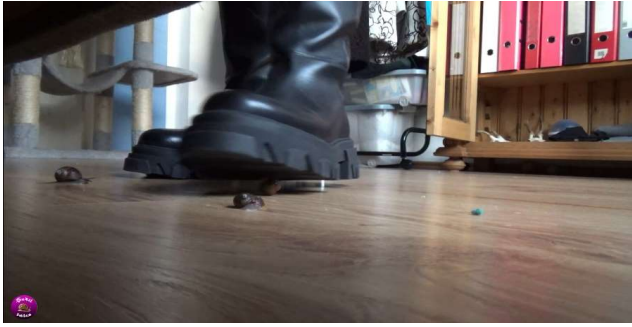

I was shopping with a friend again, this time in a fashion store. I had a GoPro strapped to my leg and pulled up my pants to film, which is why my pants are sometimes in the frame. She didn't know I was filming her. She did eventually notice that I was throwing something for her to crush, but she thought it was grapes, for whatever reason. She's wearing sexy Copenhagen ankle boots.
