

God is Still Working

Date:

Scripture	Reflection
“Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.” — Philippians 1:6	There are moments when it feels like nothing is changing—like you’ve prayed, waited, and hoped, yet the breakthrough hasn’t come. But God’s work is often quiet before it’s visible. Just because you can’t see progress doesn’t mean He’s not moving. Every delay, every stretch of waiting, is still part of the process He’s using to shape you. You are not unfinished—you are becoming.
Prayer
Lord, help me trust You when I don’t see the full picture. Strengthen my faith in the waiting and remind me that You are still working in me. I place my hope in You today. Amen.
Prompt
Where do I need to trust God’s process instead of rushing His promise?
