Social Awareness is the ability to take the perspective of and empathize with others from diverse backgrounds and cultures, to understand social and ethical norms for behavior, and to recognize family, school, and community resources and supports. Social awareness is a crucial component of appropriate classroom behavior, which contributes to an environment conducive to learning. Social awareness is also widely established as an important factor in workforce success. One recent employer survey conducted by the Partnership for 21st Century Skills demonstrates that four of the five most important skills for high school graduates entering the work force are linked to social awareness: professionalism, collaboration, communication, and social responsibility.

12. WOMEN EMPOWERMENT PROGRAMME

THE SOCIAL FOUNDATION, Lawgaon,PO-Solmari, Via-Haiborgaon, PIN-782002. Dist.-Nagaon (Assam) arranged social awareness Programmes for the women of different communities. The principle of gender equality is enshrined in the Indian Constitution in its Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and Directive Principles. The Constitution not only grants equality to women, but also empowers the State to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women. Within the framework of a democratic polity, our laws, development policies, Plans and Programmes have aimed at women's advancement in different spheres. From the Fifth Five Year Plan (1974- 78) onwards there has been a marked shift in the approach to women's issues from welfare to development and then from Eighth Five Year Plan emphasis was shifted from development to empowerment. In recent years, the empowerment of women has been recognised as the central issue in determining the status of women. India has also ratified various International conventions and human rights instruments committing to secure equal rights of women.

13. DIGITAL AWARENESS PROGRAMME

India is in the fast track path of becoming Digital India. With the Government's push to digitization of critical services we are in a stage of rapid transition. This is definitely a path of progress and well received by the urban youth of country who feel very comfortable in the digital environment. However this change is very difficult a process for people who are not well adapted to technology. Especially the elderly people find it very difficult to do things through Computer or smartphone. In many cases they have to rely on someone else to do the simple jobs like booking a ticket online, doing online banking transactions, sending and receiving money through digital wallet, email correspondence or host of work done online. This dependency leads to higher risk of fraud and also unreasonable costs charged by agents to do simple work.
