Ame art collection
a quest for light and creativity

■ Biography

« Ame » art collection is a French artist born in France close to Versailles in 1977 on September.

Inspired by the paintings of Joan Mitchell, the soothing melodies of Snatam Kaur, Enya and Katie Melua, « Ame » flourishes in a world of peace and elegance.

His artistic career began with chair restoration, sewing accessories, Raku pottery, with an artistic sensibility for architecture and graphic design.

In 2024, the artist begins knife painting, a revelation that marked a decisive turning point in her life.

Her artworks, luminous and imbued with movement, whisper messages inspired by her life experiences. Using raw pigments, gold and pearl, she lends her creations a delicacy and intensity that invite introspection.

Abstract and fluid, “Ame” seeks through the creation of his artworks to embellish exceptional private houses, penthouses for art-lovers and public spaces such as luxury 5* hotels and gourmet restaurants.

Her artworks are presented on website (<https://ameartcollection.com>) and digital platforms such as Instagram.

With exhibition projects in Europe, Asia, the United-States and the Pacific, « Ame » aspires to reach an audience sensitive to her artistic energy on an international scale.
