PROJECTS

On the beautiful island of Brac, five high-end apartments are currently being crafted, showcasing the timeless elegance of Brac Stone. These exclusive residences seamlessly integrate our stone into both the exterior and interior design – from the facade's refined tiles to bespoke sinks, kitchen counters, and floor tiles.

The first set of apartments is nearing completion, while construction of the second block is underway. Explore the full potential and striking beauty of Brac Stone with a virtual walkthrough video of the apartments, located on the right. See for yourself how our stone transforms architectural visions into reality.

SINGLE STONE

At Brac Stone, we take pride in crafting monolithic masterpieces, sculpted from a single, unbroken block of natural stone. These unique creations seamlessly merge durability, functionality, and luxury, offering a true testament to the timeless beauty of Brac stone.

From stunning kitchen islands and countertops to elegantly carved sinks and bathtubs, our monoblock designs showcase the intricate patterns and natural textures that only pure stone can provide. Each piece is custom-crafted, reflecting both the natural elegance of the material and the artistry of its creation.

Whether for a statement piece in your bathroom, a seamless living room feature, or a breathtaking outdoor installation, our monolithic stonework transforms spaces with a sense of exclusivity and refinement. With Brac Stone, you're not just choosing a product—you're investing in a piece of nature's art, shaped to perfection.

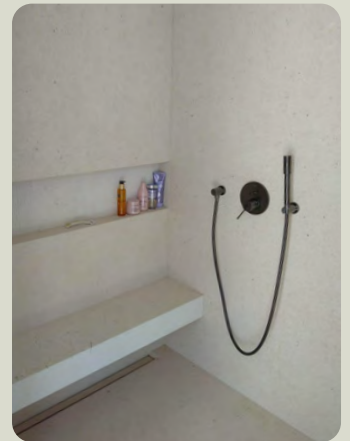

SURFACE COVERS

At Brac Stone, we understand that each space within a luxury project has unique design needs and deserves a distinctive finish. Our versatile stone surface coverings are designed to elevate interiors and exteriors with the timeless beauty of Mediterranean craftsmanship.

In bathrooms, our carefully crafted stone tiles for walls and floors create serene, spa-like sanctuaries. The natural texture and subtle hues of our stone bring an organic elegance that transforms everyday spaces into luxurious retreats. For a cohesive design, sinks, countertops, and shower benches can be seamlessly integrated using the same high-quality stone.

In living areas, our stone tiles deliver sophistication, durability, and a sense of grandeur. Whether for expansive open-plan spaces or intimate lounges, Brac Stone tiles provide a robust yet refined foundation that complements both modern and traditional aesthetics.

Each surface covering we offer – whether for a bathroom wall, living room floor, or outdoor patio – is crafted with authenticity, elegance, and exceptional quality. At Brac Stone, we ensure that every detail contributes to a cohesive, luxurious experience that elevates your design vision.
