

Newsletter Feb 9, 2026

Upcoming events

2/10 - Social at Sunflower Cafe. 10:30 am.

2/12 – What’s the plan. Join Indivisible co-founders Leah Greenberg and Ezra Levin every Thursday to break down the week’s biggest political stories, answer your questions, and map out strategies for taking action.

Sign up at <https://www.mobilize.us/indivisible/event/874938/>. Can’t make that time? Register and get the Youtube link for later.

2/12 - Resist and Reimagine: Lessons from Minnesota

Join us for a conversation with labor and community leaders from Minnesota including Reps. Ilhan Omar (MN-5), Pramila Jayapal (WA-07) and special guests. They’ll share practical lessons for fellow organizers on organizing in the midst of crisis, rapid response, economic solidarity actions, and how Minnesota’s experience can help other communities prepare to protect each other.

<https://act.indivisible.org/go/893905?t=7&akid=124142%2E4383064%2E45Z8ah>

Register and get a link to view later.

2/14 – Spend part of your Valentine’s Day protesting at the Post Office.

We are likely to have an overpass protest next Sunday, but we’ll wait for a better weather report and let you know. Get Larry your email / phone to get a personal invite.

The general zoom went well and we plan on alternating a general meeting with a steering committee meeting, so we’ll get another one scheduled for Feb 18th.

Also

Feb 10 – The Portage County Dems are having a general meeting, with speaker Roger Bullis.

Main Grain Bakery is a drop site for food donations for Minneapolis. Beans, cereal, rice, pasta, canned goods, fruit and potatoes. Hygiene items, esp for babies. The food goes to Wausau, where it then goes to Minneapolis.

We have a Google calendar. If you use Google calendar, you can subscribe to us by adding info@indicw.org. Its on our website – <https://indicw.org/>

If you have other local resistance related events, let us know and we’ll promote them and add them to the calendar.