There is no general Zoom meeting today. Instead:

- The steering committee will meet next week
- We will invite other groups to join us in a brief planning session on March 18
- We will have an open Zoom on March 25 to go over No Kings 3 details.

The general outlines for No Kings 3 are on our website <<https://indicw.org/no-kings> > and we are on the No Kings map < <https://www.nokings.org/> >.

We are going to try meeting socially only every other week instead of weekly. We meet at the Sunflower Cafe on Tuesday at 10:30 am. Next up is March 17. Like all our events, its on our calendar - <https://indicw.org/calendar>

Larry will be in contact with all who expressed interest in the Overpass protest. One is planned Sunday, March 8 at 2 pm. Info at <https://indicw.org/overpass>
