Overpass protest on Friday, May 22 at 4:30. <https://indicw.org/overpass>

Next social is at the Sunflower Cafe on Tuesday, June 2 at 10:30 am. We plan to hold these biweekly. If someone would like to organize an evening social, please contact us.

May Day mattered. All protest matters. <https://wagingnonviolence.org/2026/05/may-day-more-important-than-you-think/>

Our friends in Wisconsin rapids are protesting against a data center - <https://www.wisconsinrapidstribune.com/videos/news/2026/05/16/watch-as-residents-protest-proposed-data-center-in-wisconsin-rapids-video/90118061007/> . More info and how to join them at <https://www.saverapids.com/>

We are in discussions to hold joint events with groups from Rapids and other cities.

Indivisible is going to announce their next national event soon, possibly for the Fourth or Flag Day.

We need to discuss how we are going to be active in defeating our non-representative Rep., DVO. We are part of an Indivisible Signal group covering the district. They are prepping a questionnaire for the candidates and a process for evaluating answers, in case local groups want to make an endorsement before the primary.

It was proposed we take part in the Fourth of July parade, with appropriately PG-rated signs. This is in development.
