

🚀 Cheatsheet : Be Valuable, Not Irreplaceable

Grow your career without burning yourself out.

⚠ The Myth of “Irreplaceable”

Being irreplaceable can limit your growth.

- You get stuck doing the same work
- Fewer promotion opportunities
- Harder to take breaks or advance

💎 What Being Truly Valuable Looks Like

Value = impact + adaptability

- You solve important problems
- You elevate others, not just yourself
- You can step away—and things still work

🌐 Shift from Hoarding to Sharing

- Document processes
- Train others
- Build systems, not dependency

📌 Leaders promote people who create leverage, not bottlenecks.

🧠 Think Like a Leader

Ask yourself:

- “What would break if I wasn’t here?”
- “Who else could do this with the right support?”
- “What should only I be doing?”

🎯 Action Step

This week, choose one task to:

- Document
- Delegate
- Improve with a system
