We're launching Virtuos.you — a digital transparency platform for pre-joiners to understand our culture, ethics, and governance model based on our VBLUE Code of Conduct & Ethics. Every future Virtuosian will gain access to clear policies, compliance guidelines, and trust-based training — shaping a workplace where ethics, trust, and governance aren't afterthoughts, but foundations.

This initiative ensures every new team member enters Virtuos with confidence, clarity, and purpose — knowing what we stand for, and what we expect.

Current Employees:

HR should certify that each and every employee have gone through all the policies, and conform to additional VBLUE—TRISM: Trust, Integrity, Risk & Security Management. Every Employee must complete TRISM Exam conducted on 18 Nov 2025.

BACKGROUND •YOU

Many leading companies now operate within trust ecosystems.

Virtuos proudly joins them — creating a future where character, culture, and conduct define credibility.

As part of our journey toward a Trust Economy, we are also introducing Background.you — a secure, verified platform for employee background transparency.

When Virtuosians move on, their verified employment records — including conduct, performance index, and trustfactors — will be securely available to future employers through authenticated access.

Did you know? Around 1 in 5 verified employment records shows inconsistencies in disclosures. Every workplace has its Trustblazers — those who build culture and credibility — and a few who test the boundaries of ethics. At Virtuos, we believe transparency helps everyone rise to the higher standard.

At Virtuos, we're changing that narrative — creating a trust-first ecosystem where employers and employees share accountability and truth.

If there are pending disputes or litigations, or non-compliances, remarks will be noted transparently — ensuring fairness, authenticity, and accountability across every professional journey.

Background.you is a real-time dynamic equation between Virtuos and its Alumni.
