MANDATORY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

As a mental health professional practicing in Colorado, I am required to give you an explanation of the different types of mental health professionals regulated under Colorado's Mental Health Practice Act; the differences between licensure, registration, and certification; and the educational, experience, and training requirements applicable to the particular level of regulation.

A Registered Psychotherapist is a psychotherapist listed in the State's database and is authorized by law to practice psychotherapy in Colorado, but is not licensed by the state and is not required to satisfy any standardized educational or testing requirements to obtain a registration from the state.

A Certified Addiction Technician (CAT) must be a high school graduate or equivalent, complete required training hours and 1,000 hours of supervised experience, and pass a national exam.

A Certified Addiction Specialist (CAS) must have a bachelor's degree, complete the CAT requirements, and obtain additional required training hours, 2,000 additional hours of supervised experience, and pass a national exam.

A Licensed Addiction Counselor must have a clinical master's degree, meet the CAT and CAS requirements, complete 3,000 hours of supervised experience, and pass a national exam.

A Licensed Social Worker must hold a master's degree from a graduate school of social work and pass an examination in social work. A Licensed Clinical Social Worker must hold a master's or doctorate degree from a graduate school of social work, practiced as a social worker for at least two years, and pass an examination in social work.

A Psychologist Candidate, a Marriage and Family Therapist Candidate, and a Licensed Professional Counselor Candidate must hold the necessary licensing degree and be in the process of completing the required supervision for licensure. A Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist must hold a master's or doctoral degree in marriage and family counseling, have at least two years post-master's or one-year post-doctoral practice, and pass an exam in marriage and family therapy.

A Licensed Professional Counselor must hold a master's or doctoral degree in professional counseling, have at least two years post-master's or one-year postdoctoral practice, and pass an exam in professional counseling.

A Licensed Psychologist must hold a doctorate degree in psychology, have one year of post-doctoral supervision, and pass an examination in psychology.

Therapist information:

I, Aurelia N. Erivynn, hold the following degrees and credentials: Licensed Professional Counselor in Colorado (LPC.0014363) and Licensed Addiction Counselor in Colorado (ACD.0001488). I obtained a master of Community Counseling from The College of New Jersey in 1996.

I am a provider with Headway, as well as InTouch Philippines Community Services.

Regulating Division and Board

The practice of licensed or registered persons in the field of psychotherapy is regulated by the Mental Health Licensing Section of the Division of Professions and Occupations. You can reach the Division, or the board regulating my profession, at 1560 Broadway, Suite 1350, Denver, Colorado 80202, (303) 894-7800.

Right to Be Informed

You are entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, the duration of therapy, if known, and the fee structure. At any time, you may seek a second opinion from another therapist or may terminate therapy. Your records may not be maintained after seven years per C.R.S. *§*12-245-226(1)(a)(II)(A).

Appropriateness of Professional Relationship

In a professional relationship, such as the client/therapist relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the above-mentioned division or board.

Confidentiality

The information you provide during our therapy sessions is legally confidential. However, there may be certain legal exceptions to this confidentiality in any of the following circumstances:(a) In an emergency; (b) Pursuant to a court order or involuntary procedures pursuant to sections 27-65-105 to 27-65-109, C.R.S.; (c) The sole purpose of the professional relationship is for forensic evaluation; (d) The client is in the physical custody of either the department of corrections or the department of human services and such department has developed an alternative program to provide similar information to such client and such program has been established through rule or regulation; (e) The client is incapable of understanding such disclosure and has no guardian to whom disclosure can be made; (f) By a social worker practicing in a hospital that is licensed or certified under section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (I) or (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.; (g) By a person licensed or certified pursuant to this article, or by a registered psychotherapist practicing in a hospital that is licensed or certified under section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (I) or (1) (a) (II), C.R.S. (5) If the client has no written language or is unable to read, an oral explanation shall accompany the written copy. (6) Unless the client, parent, or guardian is unable to write, or refuses or objects, the client, parent, or guardian shall sign the disclosure form required by this section not later than the second visit with the psychotherapist.

You have received the Notice of Privacy Practices, which addresses our confidentiality and record-keeping practices.
