Department of Theatre Presents Othello: Confronting Anger and Fear

Michigan State University's Department of Theatre presents Othello by William Shakespeare. A newlywed soldier explores love, deception and anger throughout the play's entirety. Director Ji Won Jeon noted, "Our society trembles with fear—fear of the unknown, of losing control, of losing power" and "through this production, I invite us all to reflect on these questions." Othello looks into sexual themes, violence, domestic abuse, death, racism and others. Performances are scheduled for Nov. 7 - 16, 2025 at the Pasant Theatre at Wharton Center.
