

A DECLARATION OF FRUITFULNESS

I am chosen and appointed by God to bear fruit; fruit that lasts (John 15:16).

As the salt of the earth and the light of the world, I understand my assignment therefore I am intentional, purposeful, and focused (Matthew 5:13-16).

By the power and grace of God, I engage only in those activities that cause me to be effective and productive in my knowledge of Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:5-8).

I am a producer. I am like a tree planted by streams of water, I yield my fruit in season and my leaves do not wither.
Whatever I do prospers (Psalm 1:3).

I understand that there is no fruit without seed,
So, I sow seed abundantly even as the Lord leads me.
I sow spiritual seeds, and I sow physical seeds (Galatians 6:7-8).

The favor of the Lord my God rests upon me and He establishes the works of my hands (Psalm 90:17).

I declare that my seeds grow and bear fruit that last!
By my actions, I cultivate an environment for fruitfulness. (Matthew. 5:13-16)

I put my trust in the Lord and my confidence is in Him.
Because of this, I am blessed. I am like a tree planted by the water.
I do not fear when heat comes; my leaves are always green, and I never fail to bear fruit. (Jeremiah 17:7-8)

I am chosen, and I am appointed by God to bear fruit – fruit that last.
