

Excellence in Education,

Excellence in Delivery,

Excellence in People

Grammar practice

B2

Section 5:- Advanced Adjectives, Adverbs, and Quantifiers

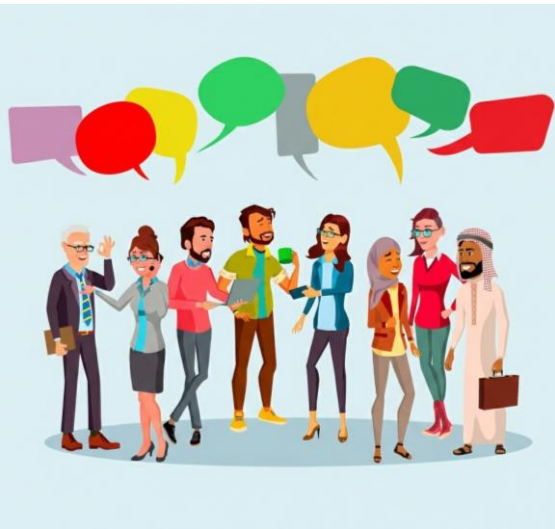

Table of contents

Section 5: Advanced Adjectives, Adverbs, and Quantifiers3

 5.1 Making Non-count Nouns Countable3

 5.2 Adverbs with Adjectives and Adverbs4

Answer Key - Section 55

Section 5: Advanced Adjectives, Adverbs, and Quantifiers

5.1 Making Non-count Nouns Countable

Use partitive phrases (a piece of, a slice of, an item of, etc.) to count uncountable nouns.

Example 1: Let me give you a ___ of advice. (piece)

Example 2: I heard an ___ of news. (item)

1. Can I give you a ___ of advice? Don't buy that car.
2. I heard a very interesting ___ of news today.
3. Could I have a ___ of cake, please?
4. We had a sudden ___ of luck and won the lottery!
5. Did you see that bright ___ of lightning?
6. I need to buy a ___ of soap from the supermarket.
7. Can you pass me a ___ of paper so I can write this down?
8. She bought a new ___ of furniture for the living room.
9. We need a ___ of wood to fix the broken chair.
10. He drank a whole ___ of water after the run.
11. Please buy a ___ of bread from the bakery.
12. There was a sudden ___ of thunder that shook the house.
13. I found a ___ of information that might help our case.
14. Could you get me a ___ of milk from the fridge?
15. She had a brilliant ___ of inspiration for her new book.
16. I need a ___ of string to tie these boxes together.
17. He bought a ___ of chocolate as a treat.
18. There isn't a single ___ of evidence to prove he did it.
19. I only had a small ___ of cheese for lunch.
20. She bought a beautiful ___ of jewelry for her mother.

5.2 Adverbs with Adjectives and Adverbs

Use specific adverbs (e.g., incredibly, absolutely, completely, quite) to modify adjectives or other adverbs for precise intensity.

Example 1: The test was ___ difficult. (incredibly)

Example 2: It is ___ unacceptable. (completely)

1. The exam was ___ (incredible) difficult, but I passed.
2. His behavior at the party was ___ (complete) unacceptable.
3. She was ___ (absolute) furious when she found out the truth.
4. The movie was ___ (surprising) good, despite the bad reviews.
5. It is ___ (high) likely that it will rain tomorrow.
6. The instructions were ___ (extreme) confusing.
7. He was ___ (deep) hurt by her comments.
8. The new phone is ___ (ridiculous) expensive.
9. I am ___ (total) exhausted after that workout.
10. The landscape was ___ (stunning) beautiful.
11. She is ___ (exception) talented at playing the piano.
12. It is ___ (perfect) normal to feel nervous before a presentation.
13. The food was ___ (awful) bad, I couldn't eat it.
14. He drove ___ (danger) fast on the highway.
15. The room was ___ (spotless) clean when we arrived.
16. I am ___ (bitter) disappointed with the results.
17. The situation is ___ (slight) better than it was yesterday.
18. She sang ___ (beautiful) well at the concert.
19. It is ___ (fair) obvious that he is lying.
20. The project was ___ (huge) successful.

Answer Key - Section 5

5.1 Making Non-count Nouns Countable

1. piece 2. item 3. slice 4. stroke 5. flash 6. bar 7. piece 8. piece 9. piece
10. bottle 11. loaf 12. clap 13. piece 14. carton 15. flash 16. piece 17. bar
18. shred 19. piece 20. piece

5.2 Adverbs with Adjectives and Adverbs

1. incredibly 2. completely 3. absolutely 4. surprisingly 5. highly 6. extremely
7. deeply 8. ridiculously 9. totally 10. stunningly 11. exceptionally 12. perfectly
13. awfully 14. dangerously 15. spotlessly 16. bitterly 17. slightly 18. beautifully
19. fairly 20. hugely

